History by proxy: imaging the great Irish famine

Kelly, N.A.

Citation for published version (APA):
BIBLIOGRAPHY

Toronto/Buffalo/London: University of Toronto Press.

Toronto/Buffalo/London: University of Toronto Press.

Chicago: The University of Chicago Press.

Department of Irish Folklore. 1993. Folk Tradition in Irish Art: An Exhibition of Paintings from the collection of the Department of Irish Folklore, University College Dublin. Dublin: University College Dublin.

Levi, Primo. 1994. If This is a Man and The Truce. London: Abacus.

O’Connor, Sinead (O’Connor, Layton, Simenon, Reynolds). 1995. Famine. (Song Lyrics)

O’Rourke, John (Canon). c. 1885. On a Cross, Pamphlet.

Switzer, Catherine and McDowell, Sara. 2009. “Redrawing cognitive maps of conflict: Lost spaces and forgetting the centre of Belfast”. Memory Studies 2 (3) 337-353.

Websites
Afri: www.afri.ie/
Ancient Order of Hibernians: www.aoh.com/
UNESCO: http://portal.unesco.org/culture/en/ev.php-
URL_ID=34325&URL_DO=DO_PRINTPAGE&URL_SECTION=201.html
University College Dublin, Department of Folklore UCD / Folklore Commission:
www.ucd.ie/ucdnews.may95/folklore.html
University of California:
http://www.archive.org/stream/georgefredericwa01watt/georgefredericwa
01watt_djvu.txt

Files/Archives

Leaflets/Booklets
Doagh Famine Village Visitor’s Centre. 2009. A Walk Through Doagh Famine Village
Doagh Famine Village Visitor’s Centre. N.D. Doagh Famine Village Visitor’s Centre.
Dunfanaghy Workhouse. N.D. The Story of ‘Wee Hannah’ – A Waif of the Famine, as told to her benefactor, Mrs. Law. Dunfanaghy: The Workhouse.
Irish Famine Commemoration (Skibbereen Ltd). 1996. The Skibbereen Trail – An Historical Walking Tour. Skibbereen: Sutherland Centre.
Molly Gallivan’s. N.D. Molly Gallivan’s Traditional Farm and Cottage.
Ulster Folk and Transport Museum. N.D. Ulster Folk and Transport Museum Pack.

DVDS: Films and Documentaries
McQueen, Steve. 2008. Hunger.
TG4. 2003, Bliain i Rwanda (A Year in Rwanda).