Widen the market, narrow the competition: the emergence of supranational governance in EU capital markets

Mügge, D.K.

Publication date
2008

Citation for published version (APA):
Table of Contents

Acknowledgements .......................................................................................................................... v

Chapter 1: Introduction .................................................................................................................. 1

Chapter 2: Competition politics and supranational integration: a structurational approach ......... 42

Chapter 3: Banks’ institutional power and domestic financial market reform in the 1980s ........... 69

Chapter 4: Negotiating the single market: interests and institutions around 1990 ....................... 98

Chapter 5: Revisiting the 1990s capital market revolution in Europe .......................................... 124

Chapter 6: Shifting preferences and the re-launch of financial market integration .................... 159

Chapter 7: EU capital market integration and the emergence of supranational governance ........ 185

Chapter 8: Renegotiating the ISD in the supranational constellation .......................................... 208

Chapter 9: Conclusion ................................................................................................................. 233

Bibliography and list of sources ................................................................................................. 249

Appendix: Overview of the international expansion of European banks .................................... 273

Summary ....................................................................................................................................... 275

Samenvatting ............................................................................................................................... 279