Acknowledgements

I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my promotors Anne Baker and Guglielmo Cinque and my co-promotor Roland Pfau. Their broad knowledge and their logical way of thinking have been of great value for me. Their understanding, encouraging and personal guidance have provided a good basis for the present thesis. I am deeply grateful to them for their detailed and constructive comments, and for their important support throughout this work.

I wish to express my warm and sincere thanks to the students and the staff at the ACLC of the UvA for their kind support and guidance during my hours spent in the library and in the department. I particularly want to thank Joni Oyserman and Marijke Scheffener for their patience.

Thanks also to the staff at the Universita' Ca' Foscari and LIS signers who participated with great enthusiasm in the elicitation sessions: in particular Mirko Santoro, Fabio Poletti and Carmela Bertone.

I also want to thank God, who gave me the strength I needed to write this dissertation. Finally, I thank my parents, my brother, my sister and my wife for their moral support, and I also thank my little daughter Elianora for being joyful since the day she was born.
