In order to carry out the research cross country style like this one, the utmost attempt in all aspects is needed thus the completion is possible with all the helps from several individuals of various countries including the Netherlands, Belgium, Thailand, Malaysia, and Singapore.

Professor Dr. Jaap Dronkers, Dean of Faculty of Education, University of Amsterdam, the Netherlands is the first person who has to be mentioned. Beside the advice in academic facet as the promotor, he also provided any assistance as I requested. This made me realize that the promotor of the Netherlands system not only is the academic advisor but also the supporter and the assistant in all aspects. Prof. Dronkers also helped seeking the scholarship as well as the lodging while I was studying in Amsterdam and the request for cooperation of the data collection from University of Amsterdam and Katholieke University of Leuven. Even though during the data collection process in Asia universities, Prof. Dronkers still assisted and requested the cooperation from the Vice Chancellors of University of Malaya and the National University of Singapore in data collection. This research will certainly can NOT be completed without the help from Prof. Dronkers, I would like to thank him with utmost respect.

Before the project of this research started, I wanted to thank Drs. Gustavo Egas Reparaz, who - at that time - was the co-ordinator of NESA (Network Educational Science Amsterdam) and had helped weaving my dream of studying at the University of Amsterdam into the reality. As from Thailand, the supporters are: Assistant Professor Dr. Waraporn Borwornsiri, Faculty of Education, Chulalongkorn University, and Professor Dr. Somwung Pitiyanuwat who at that time was the Dean of the Faculty of Education, Chulalongkorn University. Moreover, Prof. Pitiyanuwat also offered the academic advice while I was collecting the data in Thailand.

Mrs. Tonny Dronkers helped translating the questionnaires into Dutch. Mr. Jim Thevara, Mr. Martin Huisman and Mrs. Lillian Nobleman helped translating the answers from the returned questionnaires into English. As a result, the data collection at the University of Amsterdam and Katholieke University of Leuven obtained more depth of data than using the questionnaires in English.

For the data collection, Professor Jan Van Damme, Katholieke University of Leuven in Belgium, Miss Yim Lin Heng, Deputy Registrar (Academic), University of Malaya in Malaysia, and Mrs. Christine Cheng, Deputy Registrar, National University of Singapore in Singapore were of great help. In Thailand, Associate Professor Dr. Suwimon Wongwanich, Faculty of Education, Chulalongkorn University and her students offered tremendous helps in preparing the data for the analysis some of who are LT.CDR.Kommales Imocha, LT.JG.Sirirat Kunnajukr, Mrs. Panit Vimolratphanya, Miss Malee Techatrisorn and Mr. Komsorn Wongrukza.

I am thankful to the University of Amsterdam for the scholarship during the studying in Amsterdam, Mrs. Irene Weetering and Mrs. C.E. Croes-Angela for the lodging in Amsterdam. Also all the colleagues at Faculty of Educational Science (SCO and POW), University of Amsterdam who I cannot name all here but had offered the cooperation and great assistance.
Before this research became a complete thesis book, I am indebted to Associate Professor Dr. Chiraporn Sirithavee of Kasetsart University in Thailand and Dr. Tanasit Siriluck “IDD”, Philadelphia, U.S.A. for critically reading and editing the English version. Moreover, Dr. Siriluck and Mrs. Pensiri Siriluck also offered the support during the academic trip to the U.S.A. in Summer of 1995. Finally, Dr. Seree Chadcham, Faculty of Education, Burapha University, Thailand who had helped in all aspects from the beginning till the completion. I would like to thank my aunts, Miss Wanida Boonjerm and Miss Chulalux Boonjerm for their constant moral supports.

The researcher will always be thankful for all the aforementioned names as well as the ones who cannot be all mentioned here who has part in the assistance until the completion of this research.
