Struggling with the past: the human rights movement and the politics of memory in post-dictatorship Argentina (1983-2006)
van Drunen, S.P.C.

Citation for published version (APA):

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.
List of interviewees

Alba Lanzilloto (AL). 75 years old. Sister of two disappeared, one of whom was pregnant when she disappeared. Member of Abuelas de Plaza de Mayo. Buenos Aires: 29 September 2003.

The age is that at the time of the first (or only) interview. Pseudonyms are marked in italics. Buenos Aires: 21 September 2004 refers to the location and date of the interview. The organizations or affiliations named are those to which the interviewee pertained at the time of the interview.

Carla D.V. (CDV). 32 years old. Member of the team of archaeologists of the former secret detention centre Mansión Seré, in Morón, province of Buenos Aires. Morón: 16 August 2003.

Elsa Pavón (EP). 68 years old. Mother of a disappeared and grandmother of Paula Logares, the first child who was identified by the Abuelas de Plaza de Mayo in 1983. Member of Asociación Anahí in La Plata. Buenos Aires: 19 November 2004.

Felipe Pigna (FP). 44 years old. Former member of the Unión de Estudiantes Secundarios. History professor at the University of Buenos Aires and director of the project ‘Ver la historia’, a series of 13 documentaries on the history of Argentina. Author of various publications on Argentine history, columnist at Radio Mitre and collaborator of various magazines such as Noticias and Veintitres. Buenos Aires: 6 June 2003.

Hilda Sábato (HS). Historian and professor at the University of Buenos Aires. Former member of the Juventud Peronista. Participated in the Instituto Espacio para la Memoria as one of the human rights personalities invited. Also a member of the advisory board of CELS and of Memoria Abierta. Buenos Aires: 5 December 2006.

Manuel B. (MB). 26 years old. Son of a disappeared and member of the student association NBI of the Law Faculty of the University of Buenos Aires, which has organized commemorative activities in the faculty on several anniversaries of the military coup. Buenos Aires: 25 October 2003.

Roberto Testa (RT). Director of the documentary Flores de septiembre on a group of disappeared students of the secondary school Carlos Pellegrini. Buenos Aires: 3 June 2003.

