Women, land and power in Bangladesh: Jhagrapur revisited

Arens, A.M.J.

Citation for published version (APA):
Tables

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Table</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Table 5.1</td>
<td>Classification of households in Jhagrapur 1975/1999</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 5.2</td>
<td>Class mobility of households between 1975 and 1999 per class</td>
<td>76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 5.3</td>
<td>Class mobility of new generation households 1999 as of 1999</td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 5.4</td>
<td>Class mobility of 1975 generation households as of 1999</td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 5.5</td>
<td>Distribution of land among households 1975/1999</td>
<td>85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 5.6</td>
<td>Distribution of land among the classes 1975/1999</td>
<td>85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.1</td>
<td>Women who inherited parental land 1975/2007</td>
<td>163</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.2</td>
<td>Women of the 1975 sample who inherited parental land by 1975 and by 2007</td>
<td>164</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.3</td>
<td>Women who said they will or may inherit parental land in the future (2007)</td>
<td>165</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.4</td>
<td>Widows who inherited land from their husbands per class (2007)</td>
<td>167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.5</td>
<td>Inheritance according to distance to parental village (2007)</td>
<td>171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.6</td>
<td>Women who sold all inherited land according to distance to parental village (2007)</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.7</td>
<td>Class background of landed parental households with daughters married in Jhagrapur (2007)</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.8</td>
<td>Class-wise distribution of daughters married within Jhagrapur and inheritance (2007)</td>
<td>174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.9</td>
<td>Education of women and class (2007)</td>
<td>176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.10</td>
<td>Education, inheritance of land and class (2007)</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.11</td>
<td>Women who inherited land from their parents per class (2007)</td>
<td>178</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.12</td>
<td>Women who received purchased land in their name per class (2007)</td>
<td>182</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.13</td>
<td>Women who received land (inherited and purchased) per class (2007)</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.14</td>
<td>Women who lost all received land per class (2007)</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table 7.15</td>
<td>Women’s actual ownership of land per class (2007)</td>
<td>187</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Boxes

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Box</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.1</td>
<td>Capitalist entrepreneur joint household</td>
<td>82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.2</td>
<td>Irregularities with deep tube wells</td>
<td>82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.3</td>
<td>Poor peasants take land back</td>
<td>88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.4</td>
<td>Labourers hired from other villages during peak seasons</td>
<td>90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.5</td>
<td>Labourers from Jhagrapur go for work to other districts in the lean seasons</td>
<td>91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.6</td>
<td>Abdul, an energetic hard working poor peasant</td>
<td>94</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.7</td>
<td>Ali and his wife Fatima, an old landless peasant couple</td>
<td>96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.8</td>
<td>Shahnaz, struggling hard for survival</td>
<td>99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.9</td>
<td>First meeting of a new Grameen Bank group in Jhagrapur</td>
<td>104</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.10</td>
<td>BRAC lost 150,000 Taka on loans</td>
<td>107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.11</td>
<td>Abdulla and Nazma have five daughters</td>
<td>111</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Box 5.12</td>
<td>Bibi, trapped by a rich peasant</td>
<td>113</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Box 6.1 Meena’s husband wants her to wear a burka
Box 6.2 A group of men jailed for arranging a marriage for a minor girl
Box 6.3 Rushina and Shahina do not want to marry again
Box 6.4 Conversation at the rice mill
Box 6.5 Distribution of rice under the Vulnerable Group Feeding programme
Box 6.6 Appropriation of the big communal pond by the rich
Box 7.1 Farida purchased land by herself and registered it on her own name
Box 7.2 Sharda inherited land from her father, but had to sell it
Box 8.1 Rumana, Anselma and Mariama have to listen to their husband
Box 8.2 Two kilos of meat
Box 8.3 Hamida: “I am intelligent”
Box 8.4 Rakhia had to give up her shop
Box 8.5 Hazera is in control of the household income
Box 8.6 Nahar - her fifth marriage caused a split in the village leadership

Maps
Map of Bangladesh xv
Map of Meherpur District xvi
Map of Jhagrapur xvii, 10

Plates
Plate 1 Road to Jhagrapur, off the Gangni-Alamdanga road in 2000. 5
Plate 2 Infrastructure has improved. Labourers are asphalting the road through Jhagrapur. 9
Plate 3 Women have different positions and identities in the various arenas. 17
Plate 4 The household is a “complex matrix of relationships” with conflicting interests. 26
Plate 5 Nijera Kori landless women’s group in Noakhali District in 1985. 31
Plate 6 Paddy fields with a jute field in the background. 40
Plate 7 Drying paddy at a rich peasant’s homestead. 41
Plate 8 Women’s work is mostly done within the homestead. 45
Plate 9 Deep tube well (DTW) operator. 48
Plate 10 Poor peasant woman’s homestead. 49
Plate 11 NGO worker collecting loan instalments from members of a savings group in Jhagrapur. 53
Plate 12 Election posters in 2006 with Awami League and BNP candidates next to each other. 61
Plate 13 A ‘good’ woman is modest and shy. 63
Plate 14 Women are much more visible: women and girls walking through the village in 2000. 64
Plate 15  Women going to the garments factory - Savar, Dhaka. 65
Plate 16  Girls in primary school in Jhagrapur in 1998. 68
Plate 17  Peasant carrying paddy seedlings. 76
Plate 18  Shallow tube well (STW). 77
Plate 19  Fields are now mostly ploughed by power tiller. 81
Plate 20  Brick factory in Jhagrapur in 1999. 83
Plate 21  The bricks were made by hand with a mall. 84
Plate 22  Digging a fishpond. 87
Plate 23  Transporting paddy by buffalo cart. 90
Plate 24  Van (transport rickshaw) going through the village. 93
Plate 25  Agricultural labourers prefer to work on contract. 93
Plate 26  Grinding wheat by jata in 1975. 97
Plate 27  Women taking tobacco leaves into the tobacco curing house. 101
Plate 28  Widow collecting leaves for her goats. 101
Plate 29  Sewing t-shirts in a garment factory in Savar near Dhaka. 102
Plate 30:  Grameen Bank group meeting with a Grameen Gangni office staff member. 105
Plate 31  Tying a nose-flower ornament to a bride. 109
Plate 32  Durga Puja ceremony, immersion of the Goddess in the canal. 118
Plate 33  Bengali calendar poster of Saddam Hossain. 120
Plate 34  Baul (Fokhir) couple in Jhagrapur in 1975. 122
Plate 35  Baul woman performing at Baul festival in Gulapnagar, Kushtia District April 2001 123
Plate 36  ‘Fair & Lovely’ advertisement, produced by Hindustan Unilever above a shop in a small town. 123
Plate 37  Mobile phone advertisement boards in a small rural town. 125
Plate 38  Poor peasant woman running her shop. 128
Plate 39  Drying paddy at a rice mill in Jhagrapur. 132
Plate 40  Woman boiling paddy at a rice mill in Jhagrapur. 133
Plate 41  Jhagrapur primary school in. 136
Plate 42  Women’s adult education group in 2000. 139
Plate 43  An NGO worker has come to the village to give contraceptive injections. 140
Plate 44  Distribution of ‘ration’ food grains. 143
Plate 45  The stone is being taken away from the weighing tray after one of the UC members told the weighing man to do so. 143
Plate 46:  Kati the chowkidar in 1975 with his son who would later take over his job as chowkidar. 145
Plate 47  The board says: “To give and to take dowry, both are punishable crimes. Announcement Sholotaka Union Council.” 146
Plate 48  Inauguration plaque for the college. It can still be seen that ‘Jhagrapur’ has been removed and above it the new name ‘Morka’ has been written. 149
Plate 49  The boro pukur in 1975. 150
Plate 50  The boro pukur, now leased out to breed fish and divided in four parts.  152
Plate 51  The village mosque has been extended and beautified with the boro pukur lease money.  152
Plate 52  After her land was grabbed, all Halima had left was a shopping bag.  158
Plate 53  Women in a village in the area at a ‘khana’, a meal in commemoration of the death of the father of a women married in Jhagrapur.  166
Plate 54  Some poor peasant widows inherited only house-land as that was the only land their husband had.  168
Plate 55  Women are much more visible and purdah practices are changing.  170
Plate 56  Landless widow, her brother has registered all their illiterate father’s land in his name.  181
Plate 57  Widow overseeing a group of labourers who thresh her paddy by machine on contract.  192
Plate 58  Women take care of their children but most of their husbands have a final say in major decisions.  199
Plate 59  Woman making ruti in her kitchen.  204
Plate 60: A lot depends on the kind of relationship between husband and wife.  208
Plate 61  Women constructing a new house. More joint families have broken up.  210
Plate 62  A group of women labourers passing through the village on their way to work (food for work).  215