Advancements in classification, treatment and outcome of radial head fractures

Guitton, T.G.

Citation for published version (APA):

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.
Acknowledgements
Acknowledgements

I would like to thank all patients that participated voluntarily in the studies of this thesis.

Prof. van Dijk, you received my idea to perform a PhD in Boston with great enthusiasm. You made me feel as if it was completely normal and realistic to start such a huge endeavor. Your comments were always very encouraging and our meetings productive. You guided my thoughts in the direction that lead to this PhD. It was wonderful to be able to show you around in Boston. I will never forget the lobster and the Peter Michael! Thank you for the confidence you gave me and I am looking forward to work with you as a resident in the near future!

Prof. Jupiter, dr. J, although the soccer games at your house are famous, playing volleyball with “Europe” against “the world” was fun too! Your knowledge of trauma surgery during journal clubs was intriguing! It is an honor to have you as a promotor of my thesis.

David, since my first introduction to you we started emailing back and forth almost everyday. You mentioned at your home in Beacon Hill that “we are good on email”. I think in the 21st century that does not sound even awkward anymore. It formed the basis of our extremely efficient collaboration and technically the basis of this thesis. You taught me how to craft ideas from the clinic to a research study, ethics and of course psychology. I am thankful for your guidance and the opportunities you gave me and I hope to keep collaborating with you in the future.

Peter, my research endeavor started with you; you explained to me how you went across the pond to start your PhD and ended up staying even more years to perform your residency and fellowship in the US. You opened my eyes to start clinical research. After the great start with our projects in Amsterdam, you were the first to suggest to do a PhD. It was wonderful to visit you and your family twice in Nantucket for a “research meeting” at the beautiful beach house! Thank you for inspiring me and for your mentorship throughout my PhD!

Job, at our first meeting in the Blaffende Vis you showed me one of the infamous “AO cards”. It was the start of a fruitful collaboration. I could always count on you as a colleague, thank you for coaching me!

Thanks to all my colleagues from “Team Research”: Sebas, Anneluuk, Geert, Kim, Flesky, Abdo, Huub, Roderick, Jim, Maarten Niekel, Maarten Koenis, Paul, Jean-Paul, Diederik, you all made my time at the research factory even more fun. I still remember the Thai Fridays, CCRP, Quiznos tuna melt, and of course the collaboration on exciting projects. It was a productive time for all of us and I hope to continue this collaboration in our careers. Research coordinators, Shawn, Phil and Megan, thank you for letting me appreciate “the best country in the world” and feeding me with patriotism.

Marga, Rosalie and Christine, thank you for all help with the paperwork.

Thanks to my roomies at 238 Prospect street. Stan, jouw (economische) inzichten waren waardevol en jouw gezelligheid zeer gewaardeerd! Hopelijk weet je de weg naar het pluche snel te vinden opdat jij weer in ons midden bent! Monique, Lucas, Marjolein, Boaz, Sophie, Darinka, Cillian and Melody you guys made me feel home abroad! I keep remembering our nights at the phoenix landing, DOTC, Thanksgiving turkeys, grilling in the backyard, Morning Joe, brunches at S und S, and Shahi Korma’s at Punjab Dhaba. It was perfect!

All the Bostonians, Abdenour, Oliver, Lana and Mary, thanks for taking me around to kayak and fishing trips at the cape, the movie nights, Arguileh get togethers and ski weekends. Thank you for your love and friendship. Carlos, thank you for the great escapes! We were living the dream! I hope to see you guys soon in Amsterdam, Morocco, Mexico, Lebanon, the USA, or some other place in the world!

Lieve Bianca, onzettend bedankt voor je hulp bij het ontwerpen van mijn proefschrift, ik ben erg trots op het resultaat!

Ted en Sasja; mijn paraninfen, jullie support is van onschatbare waarde op deze belangrijke dag in mijn leven! Sasja, je bent een geweldige roomie geweest in Boston, bij jou kon ik altijd mijn verhaal kwijt. Ted, amice, om jou te vragen als paranimf was vanzelfsprekend, jij bent eigenlijk al mijn paranimf sinds September 2003.

Mamma, Pappa, Elis, Thibault en Sébastien; al 27 jaar voel ik mij gesteund door jullie onvoorwaardelijke liefde. Mijn plan om 2 jaar naar Amerika te gaan was voor jullie geen grote verrassing, wat dat betreft waren jullie natuurlijk al heel wat gewend! Dankzij jullie ben ik wie ik ben en sta ik nu hier!

Lieve Lou, jouw liefde en steun waren onmisbaar. Het is “onze” tijd in Amerika geworden; een van de mooiste periodes uit mijn leven die ik met jou heb kunnen delen. Ik hoop dat er nog veel zullen volgen; je t’aime ma cherie!