Prisoners of the international community: the legal position of persons detained at international criminal tribunals
Abels, D.

Citation for published version (APA):

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.
Contents

Contents ........................................................................................................................................ v

Table of Contents ...................................................................................................................... ix

Acknowledgements .................................................................................................................. xix

Abbreviations ............................................................................................................................ xxiii

Chapter 1 Introduction ............................................................................................................. 27

Part 1 Detention law at international criminal tribunals: sources and principles

Chapter 2 The protection of detained persons under international law ................................. 43

Chapter 3 The legal regimes governing detention at the international criminal tribunals .......................... 109

Chapter 4 Principles of law governing detention at the international criminal tribunals .......................... 255

Part 2 Detention law at international criminal tribunals: procedures

Chapter 5 Making and handling complaints ............................................................................. 351

Chapter 6 Discipline .................................................................................................................. 507

Chapter 7 The designation of States for the enforcement of sentences ..................................... 573

Part 3 Detention law at international criminal tribunals: conditions of detention

Chapter 8 Contact with the outside world ................................................................................. 665

Chapter 9 Concluding remarks and recommendations ................................................................. 959

Summary ..................................................................................................................................... 981

Samenvatting (Summary in Dutch) ............................................................................................... 989

Bibliography ................................................................................................................................. 997

Official documents and resolutions ............................................................................................ 1029

Table of Cases ............................................................................................................................. 1043