Acknowledgments
Anne Marie, thank you for your support, the helpful discussions, the time and all the effort you have constantly put into me and my work.

Frans, thank you for your incredible patience and calmness with which you discussed statistical and some private questions with me, thank you for the easy and the more difficult ones.

Susan and Gerard, thank you for the supervision and all the support during these four years.

Michael, thank you for the amazing time I spent at Flinders University. You showed me how career and family can perfectly work together.

Michelle, thank you for the fruitful discussions about adolescents’ sleep, the articles we wrote together and the unforgettable time I had in Australia.

Annette, you are the best colleague and the best roommate one can wish. Thank you for the way we worked together on projects, the time we spent at conferences, and all the coffees we had at T.

Ed, thank you for every smile you gave me when I came into your office.

Dominik, Monique, and Norman, you were great roomies and I will miss you a lot.

Christian, thank you for the amazing design of the cover of this thesis.

Pia and Joris, Amsterdam felt like home because of you. Thank you for that.

Saskia, thank you for all the talking. I will miss our conversations at Amsterdam Zuid.

Joa, James, Ainoha, and Mikel, thank you for all the music. Listening to you always made me feel warm and peaceful.

Beccs, Hanna, and Nick, let me cite Charlie Chaplin to thank you: ‘We think too much and feel too little’. I stop thinking and start feeling every time I see you. Thank you.

Katrin, thank you for all the Yoga we shared and our constantly growing friendship.

Anke, thank you for being such a good friend, in good and also in difficult times.

Sarah and Laura, thank you for being such an important part of my life for the last 18 years.

Special thanks to my parents, to my sisters Ronja and Svenja and to my brother Felix. Despite all the kilometers between us, knowing that you are always there for me makes me extremely happy.

Tobi, thank you for always being there, thank you for always being yourself.

Finally, I would like to thank all the schools, parents, and adolescents that participated in my studies. Without your help this thesis would not exist.
