Summary

Nederlandse Samenvatting
Acknowledgments

First and foremost, I would like to thank my supervisor, Ellen Rutten, and my co-supervisor, Sudha Rajagopalan, for their help in the course of my project. The intellectual support and inspiration provided by Ellen and Sudha during my stay in Amsterdam were really more than any doctoral student could hope to receive, and I am proud of having had the unique opportunity to work under their supervision and guidance.

I also would like to thank Ihab Saloul and Paul Koopman, who coordinated the work of the research schools I was honoured to belong to in the course of my PhD research. Without their support it would have been much harder to finish the project, and I am very grateful for their inspiring advice and invaluable assistance in all sorts of practical matters.

I also would like to express my gratitude to the members of my doctoral committee, Alexander Etkind, Rob van der Laarse, Julia Noordegraaf, Thomas Poell, and Arent van Nieukerken, for finding the time to read and comment on the manuscript.

Finally, I would like to gratefully acknowledge funding for this research by the University of Amsterdam, Institute of Culture and History, and Amsterdam School for Heritage, Memory and Material Culture.
