Within-host HIV-1 evolution in relation to viral coreceptor use and host environment
Edo Matas, D.

Citation for published version (APA):
Edo Matas, D. (2011). Within-host HIV-1 evolution in relation to viral coreceptor use and host environment

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my gratitude to all the people who, in one way or another, have made this thesis possible.

Special thanks to all participants from the Amsterdam Cohort Studies on HIV and AIDS as your contribution has allowed this research to take place.

Hanneke, first of all, thank you for giving me the opportunity to carry out my PhD research in your department. Thank you for your trust and confidence in me, your guidance and patience. You stimulated my development as a researcher and facilitated the learning of specific areas required for my project. I also want to thank you for your encouragement and support during the difficult moments, and for your motivating words when I needed them most.

Angélique, thank you for your advice and help, especially at the start of my research project, your ideas during work meetings and the critical and constructive supervision of manuscripts and chapters of this thesis.

Neeltje, you have never been directly involved in my project but I would like to show you my gratitude for always being there when I needed advice in technical, statistical or database matters. I also very much enjoyed writing the manuscript together.

Lauren, Célia, Brigitte, Agnes, Peter and Judith, this thesis would not have been possible without the lab work you performed. Lauren and Célia, I could not have imagined that working hard in the HIV-lab could be so much fun! I really enjoyed working together as well as becoming your friend. Brigitte and Peter, thank you for teaching me the lab techniques and rules during my internship and the beginning of my PhD project, despite the language obstacles!

Lauren, Célia and Dwight, I would like to thank you for your contribution to the project during your student internship.

Many thanks to all coauthors, especially Marit, Andrea, Evelien and Matthijs, for the team work, exchange of ideas, interesting discussions and the hard work during the last few months in order to make the completion of this thesis possible. I also would like to thank all collaborators, especially Philippe, I deeply valued your input, enormous knowledge in phylogenetic analysis and your ideas, that I believe, directly or indirectly, improved the quality of this research work. It was a pleasure working with you.

Marjon, you were a great supervisor during my student internship (even when, at the beginning, I did not understand you!) and I learnt a lot from you. I also want to thank you for your support and advice during most of my PhD project and for all the fun times!

Thanks to the late-lunch crew, Maggie, Lauren, Zelda, John, Tom, Viviana, Marta, for the fun conversations and “gezelligheid”. My office-mates, Ad, Karel, Andrea, Maggie and Thijs, thanks for keeping the room alive and noisy, never boring, and fun every day! Marit, Marjon and Danielle, thanks for the nice times and travelling during conference trips. Thank you Ellen for your super-efficiency and enormous help with the administrative stuff, the final arrangements and getting the thesis printed before the commission deadline. I would also like to thank CM, specially Marga, Irma and Agnes, for always helping me out in “freezing times” when I was in trouble and with orders of ampoules at the last minute! Marga, gracias por tus achuchones y cariños, que tanta falta hacen a veces. Thank you to all colleagues, old colleagues and students for your advice, help, interesting discussions, ideas and fun lunch times during my PhD.

Papa, mama, si he arribat fins aquí és, en gran part, gràcies a vosaltres i a com m’heu educat. Gràcies, a vosaltres i a la resta de la família, per tot el vostre suport i estima, per fer-me sentir que sempre us tinc a prop i que sóc sempre benvinguda quan baixo a Barcelona, i per fer l’esforç de venir a conèixer i compartir, per uns dies, la meva vida a Holanda. I vull donar les gràcies especialment a les meves àvies, Margarita i Candelària, per la vostra comprensió, carinyo incondicional i per no deixar que la distància s’interposi entre nosaltres. També voldria recordar la memòria dels meus avis, Antònio i Pius, que no són aquí per veure-ho.

Gràcies a tots els amics i amíques de Barcelona: Mercè, Mònica, Aina, Anna, Ivan, Núria, Jordi, Cinta, Creus, la colla de la masia, la gent de la uni, pels moments compartits quan baixo a Barcelona o quan heu vingut a veure’m, i per ser al meu costat malgrat la distància. Gracias, Yoel, por todo lo compartido, por tu apoyo y tu amistad.

Thank you to all the people I met in those years in Holland, with whom I shared many fun, great, important, and sometimes difficult moments, and who had become my friends and family, specially Frida (huisgenoot, vriendin en paranimf), Maggie, Eva, Célia, Cris, Dave, Zsolt, Marija, Evaristo, Sander, Lauren (also paranimf), Zelda, Andrea, Wouter and the new “Spanish crowd” (Marta, Jurdaan, Fernando, Cate…).

And Nigel, first I want to thank you for your suggestions and stimulating discussions. Talking to you has given me ideas, has helped me to think “out of the box” and see things from another perspective, and definitely has seriously improved my English! But most importantly, thank you for your great support and words of encouragement, especially in the last months, and for your love, for me the best reason to stay in Holland.