Acknowledgements

First and foremost, I would like to express my deep gratitude to my promoter and supervisor, Professor Peter Slood, for accepting me as a PhD student in your group. Peter, you introduced me to the biomedical text mining field and gave me full of freedom to explore this new research field. I highly appreciate your advice, patience, and kind support to edit my writings. I have learned a lot from you.

I would like to thank Arend, Niels, Peter, Erik, and Petra for their enormous help and enthusiastic support in administrative procedures. Thank Breannán for your supervision in the Virolab project. I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Rick, Mikoto, and Sophia for your constructive comments on my papers. Thanks to all colleagues at the SCS group for sharing great memories during my PhD research time.

I am grateful to all international and Vietnamese friends in Amsterdam for your sharing and encouragement in social life, unforgettable parties, and organizing many sport activities. You all make me feel home.

Last but not least, I would like to thank my family for your support and understanding. Thanks to my sisters and brother for taking care of mom at home. My biggest thank goes to my wife Ha for her love. Honey, you have changed my life!

Amsterdam, July 2012.
