ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is now time to thank all the people that made this journey possible. There aren’t enough words for me to express how grateful I am to all of you that one way or another contributed to the end result of my Ph.D. program, this thesis.

Neeltje, thank you for being the wonderful supervisor you are! You were always very patient and understanding, even with my simplest lab-related questions, and you always had the best advice to give me. I’m grateful for all the help and support you gave me in every step of the way, for believing in me and I’m very happy to have worked with you during this time.

Angelique and Hanneke, although we only had the pleasure to work together during a brief period, thank you for your support and encouragement! Theo, thank you for coaching the last mile of this run, it was a pleasure to share with you all our useful discussions. I am grateful for your input on preparing the last manuscripts and this thesis, and for all your support.

To all my colleagues at LVIP: you rock!!! You all make a wonderful and unique team and I hope you will keep on helping other students achieve their goals! Ad, thank you for making sure everything in the lab runs smoothly, for taking care of the last minute orders and for answering all my questions. Karel, a big thank you for everything! Since the beginning, you were always there to show me the how and where of every protocol, and without your golden hands, the great results from the last experiments would not have been possible. Brigitte, many thanks for listening and always being so kind and helpful. Thank you John for all your help, especially with the FACS and the useful conversations. Madeleine, thank you for all the good discussions we had, and good luck with all your projects! Maaike, thank you for all your support and wise advice, and thank you for all the late lunches that we shared together with Esther, I’m going to miss you a lot. To the CM team: Agnes, Irma, Marga and Arginell, thank you for your support and help and for keeping everything so well organized! Marga, gracias por las conversaciones que siempre me alentaban en las altas horas de la noche donde solo quedábamos tu y yo en el laboratorio! Although hard to believe, Ph.D. students in science do have other things to do besides work! To my friends Alan, Francesca and Adriano, Helena and Rempe, our dinner parties and get-togethers were a breath of fresh air in stressful times. Thank you so much for your company, your support, for listening and always giving the correct advice and for being there for me! A mis amigos que siempre estuvieron ahí para apoyarme a través de la distancia y el tiempo, muchas Gracias! Caro H. y Alvaro (mono): gracias por saber escucharme y entenderme, y aunque la distancia haga que no podamos hablar tan seguido, sé que seguiremos apoyándonos los uno a los otros, en las buenas y en las malas: siempre los llevo en mi corazón!

A mi familia querida, mil gracias por siempre entender las razones por las cuales no he podido compartir todos los momentos con ustedes. Gracias por su amor, su apoyo y comprensión a través de la distancia! Los amo mucho y siempre los llevo en mis pensamientos! A mis abuelos, que son el fundamento de nuestra familia; a mis tíos y tías que siempre me consienten tanto cuando estoy en casa; a mis primos que siempre han sido mis mejores amigos y compañeros; a todos mil gracias! Familia solo hay una, y que orgullosa y afortunada me siento de ser parte de la nuestra!
