The problem of disenchantment: scientific naturalism and esoteric discourse, 1900-1939
Asprem, E.

Citation for published version (APA):

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.
Table of Contents

List of Figures ........................................................................................................................................................ i
Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................................................... ii

Introduction: The Limits of Reason ...................................................................................................................... 1

I. The Problem of Disenchantment

1. The Intellectual Sacrifice ................................................................................................................................. 10

2. Science and Worldview .................................................................................................................................. 37
   - The Poverty of the Re-enchantment Paradigm ............................................................................................. 40
   - The Reach of Science: Naturalism and Scientific Worldviews ................................................................. 55
   - Disenchantment Revisited ............................................................................................................................ 70
   - The Construction and Inversion of a Worldview ......................................................................................... 76

II. Natural Theology and the New Sciences

3. Brave New World: An Introduction to Part Two ............................................................................................ 82

4. Physical Science in a Modern Mode ............................................................................................................... 90
   - Science and Memory: A Historiographical Preamble .............................................................................. 93
   - Relativities: A Straight Story ....................................................................................................................... 96
   - The Development of Quantum Physics ...................................................................................................... 102
   - Radioactivity: The Newer Alchemy? ........................................................................................................... 109
   - Physics, Worldview, and Culture: Revisiting the Forman Thesis ............................................................. 119
   - The Forman Thesis and the Problem of Disenchantment ......................................................................... 130

5. The Meaning of Life: Mechanism and Purpose in the Sciences of Life and Mind ............................... 143
   - The Disenchantment of Life until 1900 ....................................................................................................... 144
   - The Re-Enchantment of Life from 1900 ..................................................................................................... 148
   - The Conquest of Consciousness: Psychology and the Place of Mind in Nature ..................................... 161
   - Evolution contra Darwin ............................................................................................................................. 181

6. Five Schools of Natural Theology: Reconciling Science and Religion ..................................................... 196
The Institutions of Natural Theology ................................................................. 197
The Gifford Lectures .......................................................................................... 198
The Societies for Psychical Research ................................................................. 202
The Alchemical Society ....................................................................................... 204
Five Schools of Natural Theology ..................................................................... 205
I. Ether Metaphysics ............................................................................................ 206
II. Psychic Enchantment ..................................................................................... 224
III. Theologies of Emergence .............................................................................. 232
IV. Modern Alchemy ........................................................................................... 247
V. Quantum Mysticism ....................................................................................... 260
The Theological Underpinnings of the New Natural Theologies: Panentheism and Cosmotheism ......................................................................................................................... 282

III. LABORATORIES OF ENCHANTMENT

7. Against Agnosticism: Psychical Research and the Naturalisation of the Supernatural. 292
The Agnosticism Controversy and the Epistemology of Scientific Naturalism .......... 295
Psychical Research as Open-Ended Naturalism ................................................. 302
Strategies of Naturalisation .............................................................................. 311
Anti-Agnosticism and the Slippery Road to Psychic Enchantments ...................... 319

8. Laboratories of Enchantment: Parapsychology in Search of a Paradigm ............... 322
Three Generations of Psychical Research .......................................................... 322
William James and the Failure of the First Generation ....................................... 328
The Fragmentation of Psychical Research: The Second Generation ...................... 332
The Statistical Turn: Quantitative Experimentalist Programmes in Psychical Research ...... 357
Enchantment and the Reign of Quantity ............................................................. 378

9. Professionals Out of the Ordinary: How Parapsychology Became a University Discipline ................................................................................................................................. 385
How to Become a Scientist When Your Field Does Not Exist ............................... 385
Against Agnostics, Sceptics, and Spiritualists: The Boundary-Work of a Conservative Contrarian ......................................................................................................................... 389
Reactionary Networks: How Psychical Research Can Save Western Civilisation (According to W. McDougall) ......................................................................................................................... 399
Professionals at Last: The Inauguration of the Rhine Era ...................................... 411
Enchantment in Old Dixie ................................................................................... 422
IV. Esoteric Epistemologies

10. Esoteric Epistemologies

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Esotericism 3.0 and the Problem of Disenchantment</td>
<td>428</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rejected Knowledge: Esotericism and Establishment</td>
<td>434</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Worldviews: The Disenchantment of Esotericism?</td>
<td>439</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Epistemology: Gnosis and the Expansion of Reason</td>
<td>446</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Esoteric Knowledge between Naturalisation and Disenchantment</td>
<td>457</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

11. The Problems of a Gnostic Science: The Case of Theosophy’s Occult Chemistry

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Science and Higher Knowledge in First-Generation Theosophy</td>
<td>464</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Visions Beyond Sight: Occult Chemistry and the Problem of Representation</td>
<td>470</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Science contra Gnosis: Conceptual Revolutions and the Stagnation of Theosophical Science</td>
<td>489</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>496</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

12. Perceiving Higher Worlds: Two Perspectives

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A Comparative Approach to Higher Knowledge</td>
<td>498</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two Careers in Occultism</td>
<td>502</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Steiner: Philosopher, Theosophist, Anthroposophist</td>
<td>502</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Crowley: Prophet of a New Aeon</td>
<td>508</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Comparative Gnosis: Geheimwissenschaft versus Scientific Illuminism</td>
<td>517</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Occult Science”: Steiner’s Devotional Road to Higher Knowledge</td>
<td>518</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Scientific Illuminism: Crowley’s Sceptical Road to Higher Knowledge</td>
<td>532</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>On Reverence, Scepticism, and Reason Unbound: Concluding Comparisons</td>
<td>546</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Conclusion: Disenchantment and Problemgeschichte

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bibliography</td>
<td>583</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summaries (English and Dutch)</td>
<td>626</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>