Grandparents as parents: Skipped-generation households coping with poverty and HIV in rural Zambia
Reijer, D.B.J.

Citation for published version (APA):
Contents

List of figures viii

List of tables x

Abbreviations xii

Acknowledgements xiii

1. QUESTIONS ABOUT CHILDREN, OLDER PEOPLE AND HIV IN ZAMBIA 1
   Introduction 1
   Research rationale 2
   Background of this research 4
   Three decades of HIV 6
   HIV and the changing prospects for children 9
   Growing old in HIV affected families 14
   Moving forward together: Skipped-generation households 17
   Research questions 18

2. DOING AND THINKING RESEARCH 21
   Introduction 21
   Definitions of concepts 21
   Theoretical framework: Contextualising well-being and development 36
   Fieldwork location 49
   Research background 51
   Research tools 54
   Organisation of this book 58

3. HOW LIFE CHANGED IN MISANGWA BETWEEN 2001 AND 2009 61
   Introduction 61
   Changes I saw in Misangwa between 2001 and 2008 62
   Results from household surveys (2001 and 2009) 64
   Discussion 84
References  243

Appendix 1: Description of household survey sampling  253

Appendix 2: List of interviewees  256

Summary  259