Acknowledgments

I would like to express my deep gratitude for patiently reading, commenting on and providing helpful remarks with regard to all the previous versions of this dissertation to my supervisor Prof. Dr. Martijn W. Hesselink and to my co-supervisor Dr. Jacobien W. Rutgers. Furthermore, I would like to thank all those who have contributed to the outcome of the research embodied in this dissertation by reading, commenting on, and discussing its (partial) results at the various stages of my work, and in particular: Prof. Dr. Zenon Bańkowski, Dr. Cosmin Sebastian Cercel, Dr. Hanna Dębska, Dr. Michał Gałędek, Prof. Dr. Håkan Hydén, Dr. Stefan Larsson, Jakub Łakomy, Paweł Snopek, Dr. Paulina Świącicka and Prof. Dr. Rafał Wojciechowski.

I have also benefited immensely from the possibility of presenting partial outcomes of my research in the form of papers and receiving valuable feedback at the following conferences and workshops: 3rd International Workshop of Young Scholars 'Enlargement and the New Europe after 2004' (Aix-en-Provence, 2004), 'Private Law and the Many Cultures of Europe' (Helsinki, 2006), European Science Foundation workshop on 'European Contract Law and the Welfare State' (Amsterdam, 2009), international conference on 'The Normative Anatomy of Society: Relations Between Norms and Law in the 21st Century' (Lund, 2012), 'Quality of Legal Acts in Its Importance in Contemporary Legal Space' (Riga, 2012), the Critical Legal Conference 2012 on 'Gardens of Justice' (Stockholm, 2012), the 2013 annual IVR UK Conference on 'Legal Theory and Legal History: A Neglected Dialogue' (London, 2013), the 2nd Annual Conference of the Cambridge Journal of International and Comparative Law (Cambridge, 2013), the biennial workshop of Polish legal theorists on 'Postanalytical Legal Philosophy' (Karpacz, 2013) and at the 3rd Biennial Conference of the European Society for Comparative Legal History on 'Traditions and Changes' (Macerata, 2014). I would like to thank all conference participants, not mentioned above, for their valuable comments, inspiring questions and warm words of encouragement.

The results of my on-going research on legal survivals in Polish legal culture, embodied in the present dissertation, have been partly published in the form of the following articles and chapters: 'The Culture of Private Law in Central Europe After Enlargement: A Polish Perspective', European Law Journal 11.5 (2005): 527-548; 'Is the Socialist Legal Tradition "Dead and Buried"? The Continuity of Certain Elements of Socialist Legal Culture in Polish Civil Procedure' in Private Law and the Many Cultures of Europe, ed. Thomas Wilhelmsson et al.
