CHAPTER 12

Acknowledgements

After one year in West China School of Stomatology, Sichuan University and another two years in ACTA, I completed my research project for my PhD. Three years may not be a long period for a PhD student, but for me, it has been an unforgettable and valuable experience in my life.

During my PhD journey, there are so many people who deserve my sincere gratitude. Without their help, support and encouragement, I could not finish my research so smoothly. I feel tremendously lucky to have met all of these wonderful friends and colleagues in my life.

Prof. dr. Geert van der Heijden, I still remember clearly that it was in September 2014 that I send you the first email asking if it is possible to be a joint PhD student under your supervision, and you replied soon and positively, which I appreciated so much. You offered me an significant opportunity for my PhD in the Netherlands and also made my life different since then. Thank you a lot for accepting me as a PhD candidate at ACTA, and also for your great support and encouragement upon my research, as well as your warm concerning for my life in the Netherlands. I enjoy working with you and enjoy the discussions with you about all the academic issues. Your knowledge and experience in clinical epidemiology and evidence based medicine have been so precious for me. I have learned a lot from you, not only in science, but also in art of communication and how to become a confident and independent scientist!

Prof. dr. Frank Lobbezoo, the first time I met you was in September 2015, one week after I came to the Netherlands from China. I still remember that during the first meeting with you, I was a bit frustrated and nervous since you spoke English so fast that I cannot catch up with. But two years have been passed and now I am so happy that my English listening is much improved. Dear Frank, it is my honor to have you as my promotor. Thank you a lot for your professional comments and suggestions in TMDs on my manuscripts and thank you a lot for helping me find various solutions for my research. I have benefited a lot from your critical thinking and your expertise in TMDs.

Prof. dr. Corine Visscher, it makes me so proud that I am your first PhD student after you become a professor! I am impressed by your hard working and your rigorous attitude to science. Thanks a lot for showing me the direction of my research. I am also grateful that you always give me very constructive and critical comments on my manuscripts and you taught me patiently how to use the Axium system and how to collect data from the system.

Dr. Arjen van Wijk, you are my co-promotor in my PhD in ACTA, but I think you are more like a close friend of mine. You are a very kind man with a great sense of humor and it is a pleasure to get along with you. I enjoy talking with you about all kinds of topics, also the ones beyond science, which makes my work more interesting. Dear Arjen, I want to say thanks a lot for your help on my research and my English. I am impressed by the advices and methods you offered to make the English sentences in my manuscripts more understandable and logical. Thank you a lot for always answering my questions even though sometimes you were very busy.

I am very grateful to the reading committee for reading this thesis and attending my defense ceremony.

Prof. dr. Hang Wang, thanks a lot for showing me the way in prosthodontics and teaching me comprehensive clinical skills. You are a respectable and responsible supervisor and I feel lucky to learn from you. In addition to your guidance in clinical practice and research in west China School of Stomatology in Sichuan University, you offered great support and considerate attending during my stay abroad. You sent messages to me concerning my life and research in the Netherlands so many times. I really appreciate it and I shall remember that.

Prof. dr. Zongdao Shi, thanks a lot for showing me the methods in epidemiology and evidence based dentistry. Thanks a lot for giving me the opportunity to work as a dentist under your supervision for TMD patients and also for teaching me both theoretical and clinical knowledge about TMD. I have benefited so much from your knowledge.

Dr. Maria Liu, thanks a lot for your help and encouragement when I am in ACTA. You are always available to help me find solutions when I have problems. It is really my luck to meet you in the Netherlands .

Dr. Dongmei Deng, thanks a lot for your help and support when I am in ACTA. You are such a hardworking person. Your attitude towards science affects me so much. You are my role model in research.

To Fatiha and Puck, we have been working together in the same "office" for more than two years already! It is really a long time but I feel like it was so soon. During this period, you both are always warmhearted to help me for everything. I still remember that you helped me a lot when I just came to ACTA, which enabled me to adapt the new working environment in ACTA very quickly. Thanks a lot for your kindness and friendliness all the time. I enjoy working and talking with you so much.

To my other colleagues in the Department of Social Dentistry: Ilona, Hanny, Michiel, Irene, Ad, Ronald, Josef, Denise, Riët, Babette, Marieke, Fatima, Neal, Pieternella, Jan, Peggy, Katarina, Joost, and Nelleke, I want to express my sincere gratitude to all of you for your help and support in my working in our department. The department of Social Dentistry is like a big family for me. It is my honor to be a member of this awesome family.

To my colleagues in the Department of Oral Kinesiology: Maurits, Peter, Annemiek, Roxane, and many others in the department, thanks a lot for supporting me with my research in TMD. I am grateful that you are always there ready to help when I come with a question. Without you, my research cannot process so smoothly.

To my other colleagues and friends in the Netherlands: 王冠 (Jay), 聂敏 (Min), 杨婧梅 (Jingmei), 滕飞 (Fei), 廖莹 (Yin), 林兴南 (Xingnan), 吴刚(Gang), 郭婧(Jing), 陈荟 (Hui), 尚琳 (Lin), 曹一璇 (Yixuan), 葛阳 (Yang), 赵珊 (Shan), 韩琪 (Qi), 金建烽 (Jianfeng), Willem, Marva, Helene, Samuel, and many others: thank all of you for your help and your companionship in my life when I am in the Netherlands. I treasure the friendships with all of you and I shall never forget each wonderful moment with you in the Netherlands.

Finally, my special thanks go to my parents: 谢谢爸爸妈妈的支持和鼓励,让我虽身在海外但是也能感受到来自家的温暖. 你们的鼓励是我在异国他乡努力的动力. 谢谢你们一直总是那样的支持和尊重我的决定. 也谢谢你们一直以来对我无微不至的关心和照顾.
