Improving health insurance coverage in Ghana: A case study

Kotoh, A.M.

Citation for published version (APA):
List of tables

3.1 Poverty incidence in selected communities and NHIS status of individuals 60
5.1 Action plan for August-October, 2009 132
A.1 Profile of households and individuals in intervention and control communities 238
A.2 Profile of key informants in each study and the national level 239
A.3 NHIS status of households and individuals in 30 communities in Central and Eastern Regions 240
A.4 Reasons for enrolling, not renewing membership and not enrolling in the NHIS 242
A.5 Benefits of NHIS derived by the insured 243
A.6 Opinions associated with the NHIS and quality of service delivery 244
A.7 Profile of PSG members in the two case study communities 245
A.8 Profile of PSG facilitators 246
A.9 Changes in NHIS status of individuals in intervention communities after the MSPSP 247
A.10 Reasons for enrolling, not enrolling and renewing membership in the NHIS 248
A.11 Opinion about NHIS and quality of service expected in intervention communities after the MSPSP 249

List of figures

1.1 Map of Ghana 2
1.2 The structure of the Ghana Health Service 11
1.3 Ghana Health Service healthcare services by level 13
1.4 Ghana Health Service facilities 14
2.1 Study framework 33
2.2 Map of Ghana showing the two study locations with DHIS offices 35
2.3/4 Map of Anomabo (A on left) and Assin Achiano (A on right) 37
4.1 Steps followed in setting up problem-solving groups 92
4.2 Map of Central Region showing all seven intervention communities where PSGs were established 110
4.3 Outcome of PSG selection process 113
5.1 Steps followed in the problem-solving process 123
6.1 Changes in NHIS status in intervention and control communities 162
6.2 Changes in NHIS status by wealth groups in intervention communities 162
7.1 Factors that enhanced PSG functioning and achievements 166
8.1 Factors that limited the problem-solving group's achievements 180
9.1 Schematic representation of the MSPSP and the outcomes 194

List of boxes

5.1 Analysis of “no money to pay reason for low enrolment” 126
5.2 Analysis of the delay in issuing NHIS ID cards 126
5.3 Analysis of shortage of drugs at health facilities 127