This dissertation would not have been possible without the guidance, help and support of the kind people around me. First and foremost I would like to express my utmost gratitude to my four promotors and co-promotors: Professor Joep MA Lange, Professor Praphan Phanuphak, Associate Professor Jintanat Ananworanich and Dr. Gail Matthews.

Dear Professor Lange, dear Joep, You have supported me throughout my PhD program. Without your guidance and pertinent help, my NUFFIC PhD grant would not have been successfully funded and my thesis would not be completed. Thank you also for the Dutch translation of the summary.

Dear Professor Phanuphak, dear Ajarn Praphan, you are such a nice and caring boss. You are my role model in every way. You have shown me how to successfully work with all kinds of people. Your guidance and support has allowed me to grow in my career to the best of my potential.

Dear Associate Professor Ananworanich, dear Jin, you are the most incredible person I have ever met. You have always encouraged me to pursue a PhD and supported me all the way. As you know, I am usually a last minute person for many things, including my thesis, but you have always supported me with your patience, motivation, enthusiasm and immense knowledge whilst allowing me the room to work in my own way. Your knowledge, encouragement, loyalty, efficiency and leadership have always impressed me and are unforgettable. You have been my inspiration as I hurdle all the obstacles in the completion this research work.

Most of the studies in this thesis were conducted under the leadership of Dr. Matthews, Professor Sharon R Lewin of Monash University, Australia, Professor David Cooper of University of New South Wales, Professor Kiat Ruxruntham of Chulalongkorn University and Professor David Burger of Radboud University, Nijmegen, the Netherlands. I would like to express the deepest appreciation to all of you. You helped shape my research ideas with your incredible knowledge of the field. In addition you have always helped and supported me with all kind of tasks, including proposal writing, manuscript guidance/reviewing/editing, funding support etc. I have benefited from your enthusiasm and immense knowledge to guide me at every step.

Dear all committee members, Prof. Dr. Schuitemaker, Prof. Dr. Reiss, Prof. Dr. T. van der Poll, Prof. Dr. D.M. Burger, Prof. Dr. J.M. Prins, and Dr. M. van der Valk. I would like to thank you for agreeing to be a member of my committee.

Special thanks go out to Dr. Reshmie Ramautarsing, Dr. Stephen Kerr and June Piraporn Ohata for their assistance editing the manuscripts. Reshmie, you are a very nice and kind person. You always help me, especially during my thesis writing, which was the busiest and most stressful time for me. You made me believe in myself and guided me through the whole process of dissertation writing. Steve, you are a funny and lovely person, you always help me with statistical analyses and coming up with a study design. I am truly grateful for all your support.

In my daily work I have been blessed with a friendly and cheerful group of adult physicians at HIV-NAT: Dr. Reshmie Ramautarsing, Dr. Jasper van der Lugt, Dr. Denise Hsu, Dr. Wirach Mek-Anantawat, Dr. Amanda Clarke, Dr. Louise Tomlins, and Dr. Nadia Kancheva Landolt. Thank you all for being a great team. Thank you also for pediatric team (Dr.Wasana Prasitseubsai, Dr. Torsak Bunupuradah, and Dr. Thanyawee Puthanakit) for helping us take care adult patients.

I would also like to express how truly grateful I am to the HIV-NAT staff, especially the adult study team: Thidarat Jumpimai, Sasiwimol Uboiyam, Supalak Klunglang, Napassanan Laopraynak and Tawan Mengthisong, all MD team, laboratory team, study nurse team, pharmacist team, data team, statistical team, monitoring team, and administrative team. You are a great group to work with. I am extremely grateful to the adult volunteers who participated in the studies.

My NUFFIC PhD funding and my PhD program could not have been accomplished without help from many friends and colleagues at the Amsterdam Institute for Global Health and Development. I would like to express the deepest appreciation to Ms. Jacqueline van Tongeren. Jacqueline, you are the nicest and most caring person. You did almost everything in Amsterdam, including my accommodations and other necessities. Mr. Alexander Boers, thank you for helping me to take care of my NUFFIC PhD grant.

Last but not the least; I would also like to special thank to my parents: ขอบคุณคุณพ่อ นายโสภณ ผ่องใส โสภณและคุณแม่นางผ่องใส อวิหิงสานนท์ อวิหิงสานนท์ และน้องๆทุกคน หนู หมู หนุ่มและกระเต้าที่เป็นกำลังใจและช่วยเหลือในหลากหลาย

I must acknowledge my beloved husband: Dr. Yingyos Avihingsanon and son: Teton. Without your love, encouragement and moral support, I would not have finished this thesis. แม่ขอบคุณธีร์ธรที่เป็นกำลังใจมาตลอด เป็นเด็กดี ตั้งใจเรียนช่วยทำอาหารและออกแบบหน้าปกหนังสือเล่มนี้ แม่รักธรที่สุด.

In conclusion, I recognize that all these studies would not have been possible without the financial assistance from HIV/NAT, Thai Red Cross AIDS Research Centre, Chulalongkorn University, Kirby Institute (Australia), Thailand Research council, Thailand Research fund. Commission on Higher education, and NUFFIC PhD grant (Netherland).
