Obedience to the Law of Christ. An Inquiry Into the function of the Mosaic law in Christian ethics from a Mennonite perspective
Veen, R.A.

Citation for published version (APA):

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.

UvA-DARE is a service provided by the library of the University of Amsterdam (http://dare.uva.nl)
Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................. 5

Introduction
§ 1. Occasion and purpose of this study ................................................................. 9
§ 2. Methods of investigation and presuppositions ............................................... 23

Chapter 1
The theological structure of justification by faith .................................................... 27
§ 3. Christian morality in tension ............................................................................ 27
§ 3.1 The central function of Paulinism ................................................................. 29
§ 3.2 The new image of Paul .................................................................................. 32
§ 3.3 Cognitive and moral autonomy ..................................................................... 34
§ 4. The conceptual logic of justification ............................................................... 37
§ 5. Leander Keck: Justification as the definition of the ethical condition ............. 45

Chapter 2
The doctrine of justification by faith as foundation for Christian ethics .............. 51
§ 6. A common understanding of justification ....................................................... 51
§ 7. Luther: justification as the pattern of sanctification ....................................... 53
§ 8. Roman Catholic doctrine: sanctification as prerequisite of justification ......... 58
§ 8.1 Augustine: making man righteous ................................................................. 58
§ 8.2 Thomas Aquinas: cooperative grace ............................................................ 60
§ 9. The distinctiveness of Mennonite faith ............................................................ 63
§ 9.1 Menno Simons: sanctification as basic pattern of justification .................... 68
§ 9.2 Ambiguities in the Anabaptist Confessions of Faith ..................................... 77
§ 10. The shape of obedience: evangelical duty versus external legality ............. 80
§ 11. John Howard Yoder: the social ethics of salvation .................................... 84

Chapter 3
Exegetical foundations for a biblical ethics: the letter of James ............................ 91
§ 12. Faith obeying the Mosaic law ....................................................................... 91
§ 13. The Paulinist framework ............................................................................. 94
§ 14. Casuistry and moralism ................................................................................ 97
§ 15. James’s debate with Paulinism ..................................................................... 104
§ 16. James and the early Catholicism of Clement ............................................. 113
§ 17. Law and obedience as constituents of faith ................................................ 115

Chapter 4
Crisis in the shape of the Church: Paul’s social ethics .......................................... 119
§ 18. The traditional approach to Paul’s ethics ..................................................... 119
§ 19. The canonical framework .......................................................................... 123
§ 20. Outline of the argument of Galatians ............................................................ 129
§ 21. The Antioch incident .................................................................................. 132
§ 22. Justification by faith and not by works ....................................................... 139
§ 23. Life in the Spirit versus life under the law .................................................. 147
§ 24. The Noachide commandments and Antioch .............................................. 151