Acknowledgements

I would like to express my gratitude to a number of people that all have contributed to the writing and completion of my dissertation.

I would like to thank Prof. Dr Jadranka Gvozdanović for suggesting to write a dissertation in the first place, and for formulating the research project that led to this dissertation.

My dissertation would not have been finished, were it not for my adviser Prof. Dr Renate Bartsch; I thank her for all her valuable comments and support. I think Renate is a great adviser; she has always kept a perfect balance between guiding me and giving me enough freedom.

I thank Dr Adrie Barentsen for his help, especially for allowing me to use his corpus, his willingness to read several versions of the manuscript — always with a keen eye for detail — and his extensive editorial help. Adrie Barentsen’s help was crucial in many respects.

I would also like to express my gratitude to my promotor Prof. Dr Henk Haverkate, to Prof. Dr Kees Hengeveld, Dr Nel Keijser, Prof. Dr Ron Langacker (UC San Diego), Dr Kees Proeme, Prof. Dr Eve Sweetser (UC Berkeley) and Prof. Dr Alan Timberlake (UC Berkeley) for reading my manuscripts, commenting on them, and pointing out interesting examples, as well as to the other members of the dissertation committee, Prof. Dr Frits Kortlandt, Prof. Dr Arie Verhagen, and Prof. Dr Theo Janssen, for taking the time to read the manuscript and their last-minute editorial help.

Marco Last has been a great help to me in the final editing of the text, and I also enjoyed the numerous discussions that we had on different linguistic topics.
Unfortunately, we always agreed! I would also like to mention Janet Taylor, who carefully checked my English.

Ten slotte dank ik mijn ouders, familie en mijn vrienden, in het bijzonder mijn paranimfen Mireille Snels en Wilrik Thomas, voor hun hulp en aanwezigheid, ook als die niet rechtstreeks met mijn dissertatie te maken had. Zonder hen zou ik het zeker niet voor elkaar gekregen hebben.

Amsterdam,                      Egbert L.J. Fortuin
