Bonds of Love: Methodic Studies of Prophetic Texts with Marriage Imagery (Isaiah 50:1-3 and 54:1-10, Hosea 1-3, Jeremiah 2-3)
Abma, R.

Citation for published version (APA):
Contents

Preface

1 Introduction
   1 Goals of the study
   2 Scope of the study
   3 The selection of texts

2 Background Issues in relation to Marriage Imagery
   1 Introduction
   2 On metaphor
      2.1 General theories on metaphor
      2.2 Biblical metaphor
      2.3 Marriage in ancient Israel
   3 The cultural-historical background of the marriage metaphor
      3.1 Sacred marriage in mythology and cult
      3.2 Evidence for a goddess as partner of Yhwh?
      3.3 The city as spouse of Yhwh?
      3.4 The covenant background
      3.5 Summary
   4 Feminist approaches and hermeneutical reflections
      4.1 Introduction
      4.2 Prophets and pornography?
      4.3 Some reflections

3 On Method
   1 A synchronic approach
      1.1 Introduction
      1.2 Prophets or poets?
      1.2 Synchrony versus diachrony
   2 Prophecy as literature: poetry and speech
      2.1 Prophecy as poetry
      2.2 Prophecy as speech
      2.2 Different sorts of audience
   3 Other communication-oriented approaches
      2.3 A model of interpretation
   4 Translation and presentation of the material
      2.4 Translation and presentation of the material

Table of Contents

6.3 Conclusions concerning Hosea 2

6.4 The marriage imagery in Hosea 1-2

6.5 Appendix: the religious polemics in Hosea 2

7. Hosea 3

   7.1 Introduction

   7.2 Translation and notes to Hosea 3

   7.3 The literary structure of Hosea 3

   7.4 Explanation of Hosea 3

   7.5 The relation between Hosea 3 and Hosea 1-2

6. Marriage Imagery in Jeremiah

   1 Introduction

   2 Translation and notes to Jeremiah 2:1-4:4

   3 Demarcation

   4 Jeremiah 2-4:4 in contemporary research

   4 Explanation of Jeremiah 2:1-4:4

   5.1 Literary structure

   5.2 Key words

   5.3 A central contrast: a pure versus a perverted land

   5.4 Thrust of the text: a teshuva speech

   6 Passages with marriage imagery in Jeremiah 2:1-4:4

   6.1 The bridal time (Jer. 2:2-3)

   6.2 Reunion after divorce? (Jer. 3:1-5)

   6.3 Marriage and divorce with two sisters (Jer. 3:6-10)

   7 Conclusions

7. Theological Implications of the Biblical Marriage Imagery

   1 Introduction

   2 Reception of the marriage imagery: some voices

   3 Love, a technical term?

   4 Isaiah 50 and 54, Hosea 1-3 and Jeremiah 2-3

   5 Prominent aspects of the marriage imagery

   Conclusions

Bibliography

Index of Biblical References

Index of Authors

Samenvatting