Although the Ph.D path is undoubtedly a solo walk, in walking it I have benefitted immensely from the wise counsel, guidance, and support of many people from all walks of life, at every turn. I have therefore accumulated an enormous debt of gratitude on the way. I do hereby formally acknowledge all these debts.

I am especially indebted to the 1,200 respondents who gave willingly and freely of their time and information. I also acknowledge the support of the Kenya government for facilitating the work of my research assistants. A special word of thanks to the Chiefs, DO’s and DC’s in Homa Bay, Kakamega, Uasin Gishu, Baringo, Laikipia, Embu, Kitui, and Kilifi districts.

The following persons, whom I wish to acknowledge by name, earned a special place in my heart for their contribution to the success of this project: I acknowledge M. Jama who pointed me in this direction, W. O. Kosura who planted my feet firmly on this path, and MU:SES for giving me the opportunity to walk it. I also wish to acknowledge with gratitude the guidance of my promoters Prof. J. G. Lambooy, Prof. J. G. Odink at UvA; and my Kenyan supervisors Prof. M. O. Odhiambo, Prof. Nwonwu at MU.

I also wish to acknowledge my foster families in the Netherlands: J. Bakker who helped with the contacts; J. Tennekes, Shereen, T. van Bommen - who taught me dutch customs; R. Samjhawan, M. Wandawi - who introduced me to the language; E. Kentin and G. Bruinsma - who provided space and stability; W. Douma, J. Mulder - for being there for me; and the Christchurch congregation - with whom I enjoyed worship. I would also like to acknowledge my chaplain Rev. I. L. S. Watson - a dear brother; and Rev. P. Kok - my father since Alara. The support of the Kenyan fraternity in Amsterdam is also gratefully acknowledged.

Without the love, support, patience and understanding of my family, I would never have come this far. Thank you especially for your unwavering support during the times of my therapy and convalescence. A special word of thank you to my therapist for her special touch. God bless you. Thank you Monica for carrying my burden. I love you. Thank you Haggai, Ramah, Lesah, Wendo for the big sacrifice you have all made. Yes I love you folks and I owe you. Thank you S. O. Njag-Juma; a teacher par excellence. You have taught me much. Thank you Bishop Haggai and Mama Nereah; God answers all your prayers. Thank you James and Kefa for your support.

This book is dedicated to Nyadipo and Yunia; whose legacy of organisation, generosity, love and respect we cherish dearly.
