Acknowledgements

At this moment when this thesis is approaching the last phase, I feel that words were fail to express my gratitude to all the people who gave me enormous help with this dissertation. Here I would like to acknowledge all of my colleagues and friends who have, in their own way, contributed to this work.

Professor Guido NJ Tytgat, my promotor, for giving me this opportunity to do research in the Academic Medical Center, University of Amsterdam. The help you gave me not only concerned my scientific work, but also many non-scientific matters. I am greatly indebted to you for your support, encouragement, trust and enthusiasm, which enabled me to complete this thesis. I am impressed by your competence and intelligence as a scientist as well as a research leader. Your scientific approach will influence me forever.
Guido, I am very honored that I can be one of your Ph.D. students.

Professor Fiebo JW ten Kate, my promotor and supervisor, for your stimulating discussion, encouragement and support. Thanks a lot for the time and energy that you have invested in me for my research. Your profound knowledge of pathology benefits me a lot.

Professor Shu-dong Xiao, my promotor, for giving me this opportunity to come Holland for my research and my thesis. Also for the support you gave me and the concern you showed me.
Professor Yao Shi, my supervisor in Shanghai institute of Digestive Diseases, for giving me a lot of encouragement. Thanks a lot for the help and discussion when I met scientific problems, and are also very thankful for the profound concern about my health.

Professor G.J.A. Offerhaus, for your helpful discussion and valuable comments on the manuscripts. Also I would like to give my thanks to your wife: Stijn Offerhaus. It was a great pleasure for me to work in the same office with her for the first year in AMC.

Thanks a lot for your friendship and assistance.

Dr. Carin Heringa, for your generous support. You arranged many things for me when I came to this country and you supplied patients’ data.

Professor Wen-zhong Liu and Dr. Deng-wang Xia, for your help in collecting the biopsy specimens.

Mrs. Mienneke Kooistra, Mrs Marion van Haaster and Mr. J.F. Coeleman for a lot of secretarial help related to my study in the AMC and this thesis.

Mrs. Tytgat and Dr. Stefaan Tytgat, who helped me during my first year in Holland.

Mr. R.C.B. Kreugger, for the help on photograph.

Studying and living abroad is not easy for me especially during the first year in Holland. I am happy that during that time I had so many Chinese friends in Amsterdam. The plentiful and tasty Chinese food at New Years eve and many weekend parties made me feel not lonely at that time. Gooriyard 84, I will never forget that place and the friends there: ZQ Yang, Xiao, Tegus and etc. Also here I would give my sincerely gratitude to my good friends in Holland: youji, chunyan and Liming for your friendship and help in many ways.
Of course, I want to express my thanks to all members of my promotion committee for their willingness to review this thesis.

Certainly, I am greatly obliged to my family members for their understanding, encouragement, support and care which enabled me to accomplish this thesis smoothly. Particularly, thanks to my parents for their trust, love and encouragement. Last, but not least, to my son-XIN, I am so sorry that I could not give you enough care in the past years. You are so cute and mom loves you forever.

XIN - my lovely son
