The informal sector in transition: Tax evasion in an institutional vacuum Gerxhani, K.

Citation for published version (APA):

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariet, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.
List of Tables

Table 2.1: The structure of informal economic activity......................................................... 12
Table 2.2: Criteria used to define the informal sector in studies of developed countries........14
Table 2.3: Criteria used to define the informal sector in studies of less developed countries.......................................................................................................................15
Table 2.4: Research methods for estimating the informal sector...........................................46
Table 2.5: A summary of estimated results of the share of the shadow economy in developed countries (% of the official GDP)..................................................................................48
Table 2.6: A summary of estimated results of the share of the shadow economy in less developed countries (% of the official GDP)..................................................................................48
Table 3.1: Some macroeconomic indicators for the period 1990-1999..................................57
Table 4.1: Experimental sessions...............................................................................................78
Table 4.2: Income distributions................................................................................................79
Table 4.3: Fraction of Y-choices per subject pool in each country...........................................81
Table 4.4: Distribution of income declaration after X choice..................................................84
Table 4.5: Distribution of income declaration...........................................................................85
Table 4.6: Regression results....................................................................................................90
Table 5.1: Personal characteristics of the main income earner of the household.................116
Table 5.2: Labor market characteristics of the main income earner of the household.........117
Table 5.3: Financial characteristics of the main income earner of the household...............119
Table 5.4: General characteristics of the household...............................................................120
Table 5.5: Labor market characteristics of the household.....................................................121
Table 5.6: Financial characteristics of the household.............................................................122
Table 5.7: The 2000 tax evasion survey in comparison with the official data .............. 124
Table 6.1: Qualitative information regarding tax payments by the main income earner of the household ........................................................................................................ 139
Table 6.2: Tax payments by the main income earner of the household ...................... 140
Table 6.3: The (corrected) deducted tax on personal income of the selected
respondents .............................................................................................................. 143
Table 6.4: Distribution of the personal income difference of the selected respondents .... 143
Table 6.5: Household monthly expenses on personal income tax, for the selected
respondents ............................................................................................................... 144
Table 6.6: Payment of personal income tax, for the selected respondents .................. 144
Table 6.7: Who pays the personal income tax of the selected respondents ................. 144
Table 6.8: The extent of personal income tax evasion .............................................. 145
Table 6.9: Distribution of the small business income difference of the selected
respondents ............................................................................................................... 146
Table 6.10: Household monthly expenses on small business income tax, for the selected
respondents .............................................................................................................. 147
Table 6.11: Payment of small business income tax, for the selected respondents ......... 147
Table 6.12: Who pays the small business income tax of the selected respondents ....... 148
Table 6.13: Who pays the personal income tax of the employees of the selected
respondents .............................................................................................................. 148
Table 6.14: The extent of small business income tax evasion .................................... 149
Table 6.15: Characteristics of the social and health insurance tax ............................. 150
Table 6.16: Household monthly expenses on social and health insurance tax, for the selected respondents ............................................................................................... 150
Table 6.17: Payment of social and health insurance tax by the selected respondents .... 151
Table 6.18: Who pays the social and health insurance tax of the selected
respondents .............................................................................................................. 151
Table 6.19: The extent of social and health insurance evasion tax ............................ 151
Table 6.20: Attitudinal information of the main income earner regarding tax payments
(in valid percentages) ............................................................................................ 153
Table 6.21: Total variance explained of five selected factors .................................... 155
Table 6.22: Component matrix of the five factors ........................................... 155
Table 6.23: Total variance explained by three selected factors ......................... 156
Table 6.24: Component matrix of the three orthogonal rotated factors ................ 156
Table 6.25: The internal consistency among the variables in each group ............ 158
Table 6.26: Regression results based on the background information ................. 167
Table 6.27: Results on evasion and attitudinal information ............................... 171
Table 6.28: Regression results explaining the respondents’ attitudes ................. 173