Artemisinin based combination therapy for malaria in Viet Nam
Phan, G.T.

Citation for published version (APA):

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.

Download date: 18 Dec 2018
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many people contributed to the success of the studies in this thesis. I would like to thank particularly:

Binh Thuan Province

Dr. Nguyen Van Nam and the staff of the Provincial Malaria Station for their cooperation, especially Dr. Nam: your good acquaintance with many people in Binh Thuan and your active participation were crucial for the success of the studies.

Doctors and staff of the health posts where our studies were conducted: Tra Tan, Mepu, Huy Khiem, Suoi Kiet, Tan Minh, Binh Tan, Phan Tien, Phan Son and District hospitals of Duc Linh and Bac Binh for recruitment and follow up of the study patients and excellent collaboration.

Cho Ray Hospital

Dr. Tran Quang Binh, the head of my department, for guiding me into the field of scientific research, useful advice, support and critical review. With a great clinical experience, you are an example for me to learn.

Dr. Truong Van Viet, director of Cho Ray Hospital, for support and creating good condition for me to go abroad.

Prof. Trinh Kim Anh, ex-director of Cho Ray Hospital, a mastermind malariorist and cardiologist, for recruiting me and laying the foundation of malaria researches in Cho Ray Hospital.

My colleagues in the Malaria Department (22B) for encouragement. I started my road to become a researcher from 22B.

The staff of Parasitology department: Nguyen Phuc Tien, Nguyen Huy Bup, Kim Cuong and my father in law Vuong Van Chon for checking blood smears exactly and carefully.

Academic Medical Center, University of Amsterdam

Dr. Peter J. de Vries for support, guidance, inspiring discussions and teaching me how to write a paper and for critical review. Your contribution to the studies in this thesis was so much. This thesis could not have been completed without your contribution. I also thank you and your wife, Patricia, for your hospitality during my visits to the Netherlands. I will never forget Dutch meals at your home. They were delicious.
Acknowledgements

Prof. Piet Kager for critical review, support, guidance, inspiring discussions. You are not only a scholarly teacher but also a close friend. I thank you and your wife for your hospitality and interesting trips to places, which are typical for the Netherlands. You, Peter and Binh have profoundly influenced on my career in tropical medicine

Home

My wife, Dr Thao, for love and happiness that you gave me. You managed the family, took care of Be Binh when I was abroad. You shared joys and sadness with me.

My daughter, Be Binh, for love and missing me all the time when I was abroad. The images of both of you encouraged me so much.

My parents for bringing me up and supporting me to become a doctor. My parents have worked very hard to raise a large family when I and my brothers, sisters still went to school. I always remember image of my parents returning home sweatily after a very hard working day.