This dissertation is a result of four years of work at the Tinbergen Institute and at the University of Amsterdam. Hadn't I met Prof. Arnoud Boot in Radovljica (Slovenia) in 1994 this book would never see the light of a day. In addition to him, am indebted to many people and institutions for the opportunity to take part in the doctoral program in Amsterdam. In particular, I need to thank the Faculty of Economics in Ljubljana (especially Prof. Dušan Mramor) to support my decision to acquire the Ph.D. abroad and the Tinbergen Institute and The Faculty of Economics and Econometrics at the University of Amsterdam for hosting me.

People that belonged to the Finance group over the last years - Ben, Pieter&Pieter, Jeroen, Enrico, Linda, Arianne - I would like to thank for the inspiring presence and support over the years. Many colleagues contributed to my dissertation in the process of its development. The willingness of Prof. Peter Boswijk and Prof. Frank de Jong, Prof. Henk Koster, Anjolein Schmeits and Charles Bos to read my stuff and comment on it is particularly appreciated. I am also grateful to the committee members for their contribution to this final product.

I should not forget the contribution of Netty, of course. Without her energy and kindness and help my four years in Amsterdam would not be the same. Also, I would never be able to make the necessary arrangements from the distance without her. You're one of a kind, Netty.

Many people that have become part of my life in Amsterdam over the last four years are related to the Tinbergen Institute. Without Elfie and Marian, I wouldn't have a place to stay, or work. Jeroen was always willing to answer any stupid question that came to my mind and always ready to help me move to yet another flat. Louise, Pieter and Charles marked my first years at the Institute, Egbert, Silvia, Klara, Ibolya, Jens, Aljaž stood out in the recent years. My last months at the Institute would not be the same without Boris, Mauro and Sunčica either. I will never forget the parties, nice dinners, movies, football, etc.- so - thank you guys! A very special thanks goes to the members and friends from the Chariots, who brought a lot of music into my life in the Netherlands.

Finally, I need to thank my family for letting me make my own choices ever since I can remember. I would like to dedicate this thesis to my father who didn't live long enough to be part of this stage of my life. At the very end, my thanks to Egbert (and his family) for his help, his support over the long months full of doubts, and above all, for his love.
