Uprooting the weeds: Power, ethnicity and violence in the Matabeleland conflict.
Yap, K.P.

Citation for published version (APA):

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.
Table of Contents

Acknowledgements .................................................................................................................. V
Map of Zimbabwe, provinces and districts .............................................................................. VIII
Map of Zimbabwe, towns and main roads .............................................................................. IX
Map of Zimbabwe, ethnic representation ............................................................................. X
Abbreviations/Glossary .......................................................................................................... XI

Chapter One

The Matabeleland Conflict: An Introduction ................................................................. 1
2. Review of Selected Literature ...................................................................................... 5
3. Research Methodology ................................................................................................. 9
4. History and Empirical Chapters ................................................................................... 11
5. Theoretical Framework ................................................................................................. 13
6. Analysis and Findings ................................................................................................... 15
7. Lessons from the Matabeleland Conflict ....................................................................... 17

Chapter Two

Power, Ethnicity, and Violence: A Historical Context .................................................. 19
1. The Pre-Colonial and the Early Colonial Periods ......................................................... 21
   1.a. An Outline of Shona Pre-Colonial History ................................................................. 21
   1.b. An Outline of Ndebele Pre-Colonial History ............................................................. 24
2. Settler Intervention and Colonial Power ....................................................................... 29
   2.a. Enter Cecil Rhodes ........................................................................................................ 29
   2.b. The Ndebele and Shona Uprisings – The First ‘Chimurenga’ ................................. 31
   2.c. Political and Participation in the Pre-Nationalist Period ......................................... 35
   2.d. The Emergence of Mass Nationalism in Rhodesia ..................................................... 41
   3.a. Policy of Community Development ........................................................................... 45
   3.b. The 1963 Zapu Split ..................................................................................................... 46
   3.c. Zapu and Zanu: The Construction of War Machines ................................................ 49
   3.d. The Mbeya Accord ..................................................................................................... 51
   3.e. Zapu Crisis 1969 .......................................................................................................... 52
   3.f. The Zapu Crisis: Its Impact on Zanu ........................................................................ 53
  4.a. The Formation of Frolizi ................................................................. 54
  4.c. OAU Unity Attempts 1972–1973 .................................................. 59
  4.e. The Detente Initiative 1974 ......................................................... 61
  4.g. Zapu and Zipra Activity 1976–1977 .............................................. 65
  4.h. The Disintegration of Rural Administration .................................. 69
  4.i. Zanu and Zapu form Patriotic Front (PF) ....................................... 70
  4.m. The Lancaster House Agreement ............................................... 94
  4.n. The Break-Up of the Patriotic Front ........................................... 96

5. Concluding Remarks ............................................................................. 97

Chapter Three
Power, Ethnicity and Violence:
The Matabeleland Conflict 1980–1987 .................................................... 105
  1.a. The Demilitarisation Phase ......................................................... 108
  1.b. The 1980 General Elections ...................................................... 112
  1.c. Tension and Conflict during Army Integration .............................. 114
  1.d. Guerrilla Accommodation ......................................................... 118
  1.e. Entumbane One, November 1980 ............................................ 120
  1.f. Entumbane Two, February 1981 ............................................... 124
  1.g. Policies of Disarmament and Demobilisation .............................. 127
  1.h. The Establishment of the Fifth Brigade ..................................... 129
Voices Section One .................................................................................. 132

2. 1982: Power Competition – Power Intervention ..................................... 141
  2.a. Weapons of War: Covered and Uncovered .................................. 142
  2.b. South African Destabilisation Discovered .................................... 146
  2.c. Zanu and Zapu on Collision Course .......................................... 149
  2.d. The Emergence of Low-Intensity Warfare .................................. 154
  2.e. External Intervention and Government Repression ....................... 155
Voices Section Two .................................................................................. 164

3.a. Ex-Zipra Dissidents: Motivation and Goals 173
3.b. Super-Zapu Dissidents 180
3.c. Bandits 185
3.d. Dissidence or Banditry: A Civilian Loss 186

Voices Section Three 188

4.a. Government Military Interventions 194
- The Fifth Brigade Formations 195
- The Fifth Brigade Political Education 196
- The Fifth Brigade Training and Deployment 198
- The Fifth Brigade Human Rights’ Abuses 203
- The Fifth Brigade Ethnic Stance 205
- The Fifth Brigade Tactics of Terror 207

4.b. Government Policy Interventions 210
- Denial of Food Supplies and Health Facilities 210
- The Chihambakwe Committee of Inquiry 212
- Zapu Restrictions and Violence 213

4.c. Government Discourse Interventions 215
- The Role of Zapu in Government Discourse 215
- The Legitimisation of Violence as Conflict Resolution 218
- Intolerance of Government Critique 219

4.d. Concluding Remarks 222

Voices Section Four 223

5.a. Dissident Activity 234
- Pre-Election Violence 236
- The 1985 General Election 239
- Post-Election Violence 242
- Unity Negotiations 245

5.c. Discourse Interventions 251

Voices Section Five 255

6.b. Dissident Amnesty and Pardon of Convicted 265

---

III
Chapter Four
Power, Ethnicity, and Violence: An Analysis .............................................. 283

1. Rhodesia: Power, Ethnicity and Violence ........................................... 286
   1.a. Pre-Independence Power Relations ........................................... 286
   1.b. Pre-indpendence perceptions of governance and rule ................... 290
   1.c. Conclusion ............................................................................. 294

2. Ex-Zipra Dissidents: Power and Ethnicity ......................................... 295
   2.a. Power Structures and Relations: Continuities and Shifts ............ 297
   2.b. Power relations: fragmentation and differentiation .................. 302
   2.c. Power relations: The role of ‘tribalism’ .................................. 306
   2.d. Power relations: Socialisation and Memory ............................. 309
   2.e. Conclusion ............................................................................. 312

3. The Fifth Brigade: Power and Violence ............................................. 313
   3.a. The Pacification of ‘Undesirable Ideas’ .................................... 314
   3.b. The Militarisation of Ethnic Identity ....................................... 316
   3.c. Violence Past and Present ...................................................... 320

   4.a. The mobilisation of bias ....................................................... 326
   4.b. Discourse Past and Present ................................................... 328

5. Unity: Power and State Access ......................................................... 330
   5.a. Zapu: coalition partner and ‘enemy’ ...................................... 331
   5.b. Zanu – Zapu merger ............................................................. 334

6. Conclusions: Lessons from the Matabeleland Conflict .................... 335
   6.a. Perceptions of Difference ...................................................... 335
   6.b. Institutional and Mental Frameworks ...................................... 337
   6.c. The Politics of Choice ......................................................... 339
   6.d. The Space of Choice ............................................................ 342
   6.e. Lessons from the Matabeleland conflict ................................ 345

Works Cited .............................................................................................. 349

Summary in Dutch (Samenvatting) ............................................................ 368