Acknowledgements

I would like to thank all those who helped me in the process of writing this book. This extensive group of people breaks down into two categories (with various sub-categories that will not be addressed here).

In the category of people who helped me in the process of conceptualizing, writing and finalizing, I would specifically like to thank both promotores (Professors Eijsbouts and Jans), Mr. Reestman (French law), Mr. Vidal (Belgian law), Rieneke Buisman (technical assistance) and the esteemed members of the reading committee.

In the category of people who helped me by offering moral support as well as the necessary distraction, many thanks to both paranimphs Hilde Leemreize and Mattijs van de Port and their further entourage of good friends. I would also like to thank all those wonderful colleagues in both the University of Amsterdam and the University of Utrecht, in particular Hege Tysnes Kjos (Amsterdam roommate), Elies van Sliedregt (Utrecht roommate) and Kiki Brölmann. Last, but not least, many thanks to my supporting family, in particular my parents Marc and Lieve Vandamme-Janssens, my sister Isabella Vandamme, my grandmother Clothilde Janssens-Brosens and 'Barclay' (risking that this would be the first law Ph.D ever to acknowledge help from a Belgian Shepard).
