AGEING WITH HIV:
FROM PATHOGENESIS TO POLICY

Rosan van Zoest
The research described in this thesis based on the AGE\textsubscript{IV} Cohort Study was supported by The Netherlands Organisation for Health Research and Development (ZonMW) together with AIDS Fonds (grant numbers 300020007 and 2009063, respectively). Additional unrestricted scientific grants were received from Gilead Sciences, Vi\textsubscript{i}V Healthcare, Janssen Pharmaceutica N.V., Bristol-Myers Squibb, and Merck&Co. The research conducted as part of the Comorbidity in Relation to AIDS (COBRA) project was additionally supported by the European Union Seventh Framework Programme (grant FP-7-HEALTH 305522). The research in this thesis based on data from the Netherlands AIDS Therapy Evaluation in The Netherlands (ATHENA) Observational HIV Cohort was supported by the Stichting HIV Monitoring, which is funded by The Netherlands Ministry of Health, Welfare and Sport through the Center for Infectious Disease Control of the National Institute for Public Health and Environment.

Printing of this thesis was financially supported by the department of Global Health of the Amsterdam UMC, University of Amsterdam and the Amsterdam Institute for Global Health and Development. Financial support by the Dutch Heart Foundation for the publication of this thesis is gratefully acknowledged.
