My PhD work has now come to an end. The results presented in this dissertation are achieved during a research work of several years. Now, I look back at this period with pleasure, which included many good moments, hard times, and a nice work. I would like to use the opportunity to thank everybody that I met and worked with in this period.

In special, I would like to thank to my promotor Bob Hertzberger and co-promotors Hamideh Afsarmanesh and Mike Papazoglou. First my promotor. Dear Bob, thank you for the continuous confidence that you have had in me. From you, I have always received to-the-point advices. I must also admit that I really enjoyed the freedom that I had during my research work.

Second, comes my first co-promotor. Dear Hamideh, I would like to thank you for many things that I learned from you: From organizing my thoughts to writing better English, working hard, and being patient to reach the good. Many thanks for your help during the thesis writing period, especially regarding the improvements in its organization and structure.

Dear Mike, my second co-promotor. Although we have met at the later stages of my work, I appreciate your support and comments which were helpful to improve the structure of my thesis.

I also want to express my appreciation to the members of my promotion committee, for the time and effort that they dedicated for the promotion activities.

I did not of course forget my friends with whom I shared my professional and social life.

My Turkish coffee gang: Hakan, Özgül, and Çağkan. Hakan, many thanks for all the support that you gave since the beginning, and the time that you reserved to listen, to help, and of course to have fun. Özgül, although you joined the group recently, we had enough time to have fun, and even to work on a project! And Çağkan, thanks for the nice chats. I really enjoyed the morning coffees that we had together.

Dear Victor, as office mates we had nice and interesting! chats, even during the very hard times. Adam, Djamel, Ammar, and in particular Cesar. I thank you all for helping me to keep up the good work.

With this occasion, I would like to thank the former members of my group Anne and Arjan; and the other members of the VLAM-G team, particularly David, Zeger, Dmitry, Vladimir, and earlier Philip. From the biology department, I owe many thanks to Timo, from whom I learned a lot in this field; and Peter, Han, and recently Marco. It was a pleasure to work with you guys.

Furthermore, I would like to thank to Ronald Schut, manager of the PCC. Also, during the development of this thesis, I received assistance and support from many other colleagues; I can not name them all, but the people from the secretariat, personnel office, financial administration, systems group, reception desk, and the library. In particular, I would like to mention Frank, who helped a lot with the thesis layout including the 'samenvatting', and Jacqueline who helped me with almost every administrative problem I had. I must also name Erik and Virginie from the secretariat for all their help.

I thank to all my other friends in Amsterdam; in specific to Edwin from our secretariat, and to Natalia & Sven, and Chris & Steve in addition to the other guys from Başak's department.

Amsterdam'daki diğer dostlarımdan özellikle Serdar'a ve Betül & İsmail'e de teşekkürlerimi gönderiyorum. Onca işin gücün arasında birlikte pek çok kez soluklandık. Aynı şekilde Ayten ve Sevgi Yetemen'e de selamlarımı iletiyorum.

Tabii ki anneme ve babama beni bugüne getiren emeklerinden dolayı sevgi ve minnetlerimi sunuyorum. Sizin sürekli desteğiniz bana güç verdi. Benden yardımını hiç esirgemeyen abimi de unutmadım tabii ki.

Ve son olarak sevgili eşime, Başak'ıma sonsuz teşekkürler. Evliliğimizin büyük kısmında ikimiz de doktorayla meşguldük; zorlandık tabii ki, ama birbirimize destek olduk, moral verdik, ve işte mutlu sona ulaştık. Bu süre içinde birlikte pek çok güzel günlerimiz oldu. Doktoranın ne olduğunu bir yapan bilir, bir de yapanın en yakınında olan. Sen her ikisi de olarak benim hep yanımdaydın. Sonsuz sevgilerimle.
