ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

It is said that a person's life is formed by the people he met and the things he experienced. The most vigorous years of my life has been spent for my research studying in USA.

Although many times I was driven by stress and wonder what the meaning of science was for a medical doctor, I really take delight of the experiences I got. At the end of writing this thesis, my heart is filled up with great thankfulness to a number of people, who replenish my simple daily life with emotions and strengthen me to pursue fulfillment of my study.

Firstly, my heartfelt gratitude goes to professor shu-dong Xiao, Honorary Director of Shanghai Institute of Digestive Disease, Shanghai Second Medical University. As one of the most important person in my carrier, He gains my great respect and appreciation, for taking care of me, giving me strong support in my working and studying.
A specially wholehearted gratitude to promotor Pro. Dr. G.N.J Tytgat for giving me this precious opportunity to get the most important degree in my carrier's life. I would like to say, "thank you very much" for everything.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to professor Dr. guo-rong Xu, professor in VA Medical Center in New Jersey, USA. The three years which I spent in your Lab. was wonderful. You not only trained me to be an independent researcher, but also you taught me the spirits about how to be a successful physician-scientist and a real man in China.

Since I was a student of master degree program, professor Dr. de-kai Qiu has become my supervisor. He has given me a lot of taking care and still continue supporting me after my coming back Shanghai. I would like to express my appreciation to him, for his sincere parents' like concern.

All my colleagues are greatly acknowledged for kindness. In particular,

To Dr. Yi Liu, for giving me a lot of advice about how to write this thesis and helping me travel to Holland.

To Dr. xiao-yu Chen, for your helpful tips and concern.
To Quan Shan, for making an effort to assist my work and for being an ‘dream team’ in the VA Medical Center’s Lab.

Finally, My great thanks are to my parents and brother, for all things that they have done by love. Although I was far from my parents for years in USA, my life had never been separated from their love. Now I am very happy to come back Shanghai and lived with them in the same city.

<<美丽的六月黄昏>>

金色的晚霞弥漫着音乐会的草坪，
柔和的旋律从舞台上轻轻升起，
荡漾在空中，
轻抚着人们的心灵。
点点烛光犹如夜空中的繁星，
随着欢快的乐声，
盈盈的跳跃。

一阵微风拂过，
风中的烛光摇曳欲灭。
美好的时光犹如这风中的精灵，
闪亮却又脆弱。
升华于美好时光的心灵之声，
犹如那夜空绽放的焰火，
短暂却绚丽灿烂，
刹那间闯入心扉，
永藏心底。
