Palestine online: cyber Intifada and the construction of a virtual community 2001-2005

Aouragh, M.

Citation for published version (APA):
List of Figures and Photo’s

Figure 1: Three fieldwork sites/phases (original map from UNRWA website 2002) ...6
Figure 2: Schematic diagram of the dialectic relations involved in the research .......... 8
Figure 3: “Tensions” during research ........................................................................ 10
Figure 4: Network Blogs based on: Category, Issue and Alignment.......................... 14
Figure 5: Locality of .ps websites: Host/Registration ............................................. 14
Figure 6: Migration of BZU linked websites to .ps ................................................. 14
Figure 7: .ps reference of three main Palestinian universities (see Appendix 4) ....... 14
Figure 8: Manual net analysis of 6 ‘popular’ websites ............................................. 17
Figure 9: Geography and Demography of fieldwork sites West Bank and Gaza ...... 18
Figure 10: Geography and Demography of fieldwork sites Jordan and Lebanon ..... 18
Figure 11: Homepage of Solidarity Design ................................................................ 27
Figure 12: Palestine Monitor Website, here supporting Palestine Media Watch .......... 27
Figure 13: That al Ramad (Underash!) Virtual Intifada game .................................. 27
Figure 14: Al Carma IC in Ramallah after being attacked during 2002 incursions .... 27
Figure 15: Hear Palestine mailing list, set up by Karma in Ramallah ....................... 27
Figure 16: Electronic Intifada Website: reclaiming the ‘permission to narrate’ .......... 27
Figure 17: Electricity cuts in Bour al-Barajna/Beirut Sirbaan Net IC: thanks to UPS internet use can continue for extra hours ...................................................... 27
Figure 18: Shatila Camp/Beirut: A Web of electricity cables and wires cover the narrow streets of the overpopulated refugee camp ................................................. 27
Figure 19: Example of popular Intifada images that circulated on the internet. Left; Faris Odeh, right; Mohammed al-Durra ................................................................. 27
Figure 20: Telephone “Central” in Bourj al-Shamali refugee camp. Internet connection makes it possible to call family and friends in the diaspora. Clocks from right to left point to time in: Riayd, New York, Germany/Sweden, London ........ 27
Figure 21: Palestinian Identity on internet: “Online Commoditization” ............... 27
Figure 22: Curtains and Mirror to offer “Protection” and guarantee “Modesty” at Al Jaleel IC Ain al-Hilwe camp/Saida 2003 ............................................................... 27
Figure 23: Internet centres in Nahr al-Bared/Tripoli and Bourj al-Shamali/Sour .... 27
Figure 24: Poem received online by a girl in Nahr al-Bared/Tripoli. Internet users invent cyberslang or phonetic Arabic to ease communication .................................... 27
Figure 25: Hamas website as in 2002, and professionalized in 2006 ....................... 27
Figure 26: Visual/Virtual Rhetorics: Poster in Bourj al-Barajne Camp IC Inner Space; and a similar image on a website ................................................................. 27
Figure 27: Dying to live as website example of “Rehumanization” approach ........ 27