Acknowledgements

My heartfelt thanks goes to my promoter and supervisor Prof. Gadi Rothenberg for giving me the opportunity to do PhD in University of Amsterdam. It was one of the best moments when I got a call from my supervisor in India saying that Dr. Rothenberg has offered you a position in his group. Since then my four years journey in his group taught me lot of things. I sincerely thank my second promoter Prof Kees Elsevier for his valuable suggestions and friendly technical discussions. I am very much grateful to my co-promoter Dr. Erika Eiser. I came to know her in critical period of my thesis. She gave me better insight to the physics and spectroscopic techniques, without her guidance this thesis would never be completed.

I would like to thank all my committee members for Dr. T. Asefa, Prof. dr. B. D. Chandler, Prof. dr. ir. R. Orru, Prof. dr. A. M. Brouwer, Dr. ir. J.E. ten Elshof, Dr. J. A. Westerhuis for reading and approving my thesis.

I am very much thankful to dr. Marjo Mittelmeijer-Hazeleger. She is a good teacher always helped me endlessly in all my projects. She taught me and scolded me if necessary for working clean and safe in the lab. I can never forget the suggestions and help offered by Peter Verschuren. He always checked my articles so carefully and also translated my English summary to Dutch. This thesis work would not have started successfully without help of Dr. Hans Boelens. He helped me to understand all NAS/ PCA models. Many thanks to Paul, Dorette, Jan-Meine (NMR master), Gooitzen Zwanenberg and Petra Aarnoutse for thier excellent technical support and useful discussions. Dr. Rob Zsom, Maureen Sabander, Renate Hippert, Britta Duiker, Peter Scholts, Truc Ngo (?? IND not again), Petra Hagen: thank you all for your great administrative support. Marihke, and Stephan from library, thanks for delivering articles instantly.

The PhD thesis is never a one person's work. Its a teamwork and contribution of all my colleagues and freinds. I would like to thank Enrico (cool drummer), David, Pablo, Jurriaan, Stefan, Peter, Luc, Fred, Hessel, Tony, Yuli, Stella, Emile, Alexandro, Filippo, Susana, Giovanni, Yuli, Sanders, Ivo, Emma, Franco, Fabrizio, Miguel, Monique (for serving nice food), Anthony and Nacho. Many thanks to molsim group Edith, Bas, Elske, Jocelyne, Jutta and Menno for making sixth floor alive.

This four year period at UvA were one of the best moments in my life. The credit for this goes to all of my friends that were always there with me in bad and good times. Marchella (sfigatta), Alvaro, Marcus (the great boozier), Nina, Curro, Almu and Sara stayed for a small period but gave innumerable memories, I will never forget our parties together. Alex (French, chemistry teacher) and Taasje are my darts competitors and great bikers. We enjoyed our late night parties so much. I would like to thank my Indian group in The Netherlands: Ruta, Sachin, Dheeraj (pandit), Dhanraj (jangle ka sher), Biju (jamai), Sameer1 (mitthun), Sameer2, Irshad, Sumesh, Nirmal, Vinay, Rana (jay-Biru), Shiva, Digvijay, JK and Gopalji, with them I had so many nice Indian dinners and our "tukar gappa", it was so much fun. Especially I would like to thank Mehul and Kanchan Bhabhi. Mehul thanks a lot for introducing me to Prof. Gadi's group and Amsterdam, without his advices I would not have survived in Amsterdam. I would also like to thank some people back at my home university. Prof. A. M. Lali and all my master's lab members especially Kishore, Ganesh, Anoop and all of them, thanks guys for your support. I appreciate the support of my group leader, Mr. Dirk van der Plas and all my new colleagues in Corus.

Then comes my most important group of people called as "Kriterion". They are the only people with whom I shared most of my social life in Amsterdam. Ana (kournikova from Venezuela), Franchesco (Nacho monster), Jarek (JJ), Maxi (cool artist) and Laura. What shall I say about Laura? I am so lucky that I found such a gold hearted person in this foreign country. We cried together in a bad period and laughed and danced together in happy moments (oh!! your broken glasses). Thanks a lot Laura for everything that you gave me. One of my achievements in these four years is that I found my best friend Bei. She is almost like my family. I will always remember the time we spend together and also our fights. Her moral support and suggestions means a lot to me.

All these friends are the best gifts that I got here but people who made me able to come to this successful stage are my parents, without them I am nobody. My sisters Ashwini (Tai), Archana (Chana) are the best sisters in the world and their husbands Anubhav and Dinesh who always supported my parents in my absence. They always showed lot of confidence in me. Last but not least my lovely wife Smita, who came in my life recently. Her love and support helped me a lot during finishing stage of my thesis and she made sure that I print the thesis and complete all the formalities of it in time. All these people made lot of efforts for me. So this thesis not only belongs to me but also to all above people. I would like to dedicate this thesis to almighty god and his representatives like lord "Saibaba".
