Sanctuary and society in central-southern Italy (3rd to 1st centuries BC) : a study into cult places and cultural change after the Roman conquest of Italy
Stek, T.D.

Citation for published version (APA):
Stek, T. D. (2008). Sanctuary and society in central-southern Italy (3rd to 1st centuries BC) : a study into cult places and cultural change after the Roman conquest of Italy.

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.
Contents

Introduction ................................................................................................................................ 5

Chapter 1. Rome and Italy: Ideas on Cultural Change............................................................. 11
   Early Roman Cultural Dominance ................................................................. 12
   Two Objections: Historiographical Constructs and the Mechanism of Self-Romanisation 13
   Conclusion: Deconstruction and New Perspectives.............................................. 18

Chapter 2. ‘Religious Romanisation’ and the Fate of Italic Rural Sanctuaries............... 21
   Italic and Roman Religion................................................................. 21
   Rome in Italy........................................................................ 23
   The Fate of Italic Sanctuaries. Destruction, Desolation and Colonisation................ 34
   Conclusion: Urbanity and the Unaffected Countryside........................................ 41

Chapter 3. Samnium: The Sacred Construction of Community and Architectural Forms...... 43
   Samnium: Research History................................................................. 43
   Samnite Sanctuaries: New Forms and Tradition ............................................. 48
   Monumentalisation: Wealth, Politics and Architectural Forms ....................... 54
   Conclusion: The Construction of Community............................................... 63

Chapter 4. Location and Function of Italic Sanctuaries in Society: Three Models ................. 65
   Transhumance: Sanctuaries, Hercules and ‘Tratturi’............................................ 69
   Sanctuaries as Territorial Markers .................................................................... 73
   Sanctuaries and the so-called Pagus-Vicus System ......................................... 83
   Conclusion: Images of Society and the Lack of Evidential Basis....................... 99

Chapter 5. Landscapes of the Sacred: Contextualising the Samnite Sanctuary of S. Giovanni in Galdo ................................................................. 101
   Research Approach and Methodology ......................................................... 101
   The Excavation Data (Soprintendenza per i Beni Archeologici del Molise, 1974-1976) 120
   Conclusion: A Rural Community around the Sanctuary.................................. 129

Chapter 6. Roman Sacred landscapes? The Pagus-Vicus System Revised...................... 133
   The Pagus: “die uritalische Siedlungsform”? .................................................. 134
   The Pagus: A Roman Invention? ................................................................... 138
   The Pre-Roman or Roman Vicus .................................................................. 140
   Conclusion: New Perspectives on Pagus and Vicus ....................................... 150
Chapter 7. Pagi, Vici and Sanctuaries: The Evidence and Four Case Studies........................................ 153

The Pagus in Sanctuaries and Cults.......................................................... 156
Case 1. Pagus and Sanctuary at Castel di Ieri.............................................. 160
The Vicus in Sanctuaries and Cults............................................................ 164
Case 2. Urban and Extra-Urban Vici and Colonies: Models and Evidence ....... 166
Case 3. Rural Vici and Sanctuaries in the Ager Praetutianus....................... 183
Case 4. The Rural Vici near the Fucine Lake.............................................. 193
Conclusion: Vici, Pagi, Sanctuaries and ‘New Communities’........................... 212

Chapter 8. Roman Ritual in the Italian Countryside? The Paganalia and the Lustratio Pagi
........................................................................................................................................ 217

The Religious Role of the Pagus and the Vicus in Roman times...................... 217
Pagus and Paganalia: Between Rusticity and Administrative Control............... 219
Lustratio Pagi and Paganalia in Italy outside Rome......................................... 226
Conclusion: The Ritual Definition of New Communities................................. 232

Chapter 9. Roman Ritual in the Italian Countryside? The Compitalia and the Shrines of the Lares Compitales.......................... 235

Private and Public: An Integrative Cult........................................................... 239
The Development of the Compitalia: From the Countryside to the City or vice versa? 250
The Compitum Shrines: Form and Location in City and Countryside.............. 253
Conclusion: Roman Institutions and Ritual in the Italian Countryside............... 265

Chapter 10. Summary and Conclusions............................................................. 267

List of Figures ........................................................................................................ 281
Bibliography.......................................................................................................... 285
Dutch Summary – Nederlandse Samenvatting ..................................................... 317