Tormented births: passages to modernity in Europe and the Middle East
al-Khafaji, I.

Citation for published version (APA):
Contents

List of Tables

List of Figures

Dedication

Acknowledgement

Introduction: Posing the Problematic
Chronology

Chapter One: The Logic of Premodern Structures
1.1 The Rise of Big Landed Aristocracy
1.2 The Nature of the Agrarian Systems in the Middle East
1.3 The Logic of Precapitalism
1.4 Urban Capitalism?
1.5 Landlords as Political Leaders

Chapter Two: Merchants, Landowners and the Origins of Underdevelopment
2.1 Merchant Capital and Land Ownership
2.2 Landowners, Merchants and Capitalism
2.3 Interpreting the Industrial Revolution
2.4 A Doubly-Mistaken Reading of History
2.5 Conclusion

Chapter Three: The Changing Boundaries of Urban Landscapes
3.1 The Segregated City
3.2 The Structure and Dynamics of Precapitalist Cities

Chapter Four: Social formations in Historical Perspective
4.1 Social Positions and Social Imagery
4.2 Pillars of Power: Knowledge and Acquiescence
4.3 From Stratification to Hegemony
4.4 The Political, Ideological and Economic Levels
4.5 Situating Social Classes

Chapter Five: Community, Authority and Identity: Some Methodological Considerations
5.1 Costs of Protection
5.2 Contextualizing Spatial Variations
5.3 Precapitalist Authority and Protection Costs
5.4 States and Classes in the Passages to Modernity

Chapter Six: Roots of Change: A Political Economy of the Mashreq Revolutions
6.1 Continuity and Change in Patterns of Migration
6.2 Disruptive Migration, Shifting Balances
6.3 Manufacturing Revolutions
6.4 New leaders in Search of Constituencies
6.5 Interregnum: Prelude to Rupture
6.6 Transitional Revolutionaries
6.7 Conclusion

Chapter Seven: Atomization, Centralization and Nationalism
7.1 The End of Localism?
7.2 Bourgeois Transformation and Capitalist Development
7.3 The Making of Economic Nationalism 216
7.4 Nationalism and Modernity 225
7.5 Conclusion: Stratified Nationalism and Civil Society 236

Chapter Eight: The Political Economy of State Capitalism 240
8.1 A Model of State Capitalism 241
8.2 The Life Cycle of State Capitalism 259
8.3 The Historical Significance of State Capitalism 268

Chapter Nine: Classes, States and Modernity 272
9.1 From Statism to Privatization 273
9.2 Patterns of Class Formation 279
9.3 Old Bourgeoisie and New 290
9.4 Power Versus Wealth 296
9.5 Political Authority Revisited: The Exceptional Mashreq? 298

Appendix: Note on the Method of Sampling 307

Chapter Ten: In Lieu of Conclusion: From Modernization to Rentierism 309
10.1 Extensive Growth, Intensive Growth and Capitalism 312
10.2 The Paradox of the Non-Capitalist Mashreq 319
10.3 Trajectories of the Rentier State 321

Bibliography: English and French: 327
Official, Semi-official and Unpublished Material Books 328
Articles, Papers and Chapters in Edited Books 349
Arabic: 366
Official, Semi-Official and Unpublished Material Books 367
Papers and Articles 376

Dutch Summary 381