

UvA-DARE (Digital Academic Repository)

Nação legal consciousness and its contribution to the seventeenth-century Dutch Republic debate on slavery and the slave trade

Elazar De Mota, Y.

Publication date
2021

Link to publication

Citation for published version (APA):

Elazar De Mota, Y. (2021). Nação legal consciousness and its contribution to the seventeenth-century Dutch Republic debate on slavery and the slave trade. [Thesis, fully internal, Universiteit van Amsterdam].

General rights

It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations

If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: <https://uba.uva.nl/en/contact>, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This book is the result of team support from many people who helped me throughout this journey. Firstly, I would like to thank the extraordinary women in my life. To my mother for her constant emotional and material support. To Hannah, for her logistical and emotional support. To Elena, for her motivation and mentorship for over two decades. To Valeria, Hedva, and Laura for reading copy-editing my work. I could have not done this without them. Next, I am grateful for my children: Eliana, Abigail, and Nehemyah, who are my raison d'être. I have to thank Ton Tielen and Julia van der Krieke for helping me translate the archival material written in old Dutch. I would like to give a special thanks to Mark Ponte, Julie Marthe-Cohen, Gustaaf van Nifterik, Cátia Antunes, Aviva Ben-Ur, Henk Nellen, Dienne Hondius, Heidi Warncke for being so resourceful at the beginning of the research endeavor. I also thank Marina and Miha for their insights during our meetings. I must also thank David Ramirez and Daniel Marcou for their insights and copy-editing the manuscript. I am also grateful to my siblings, Carlos, Nathaniel, Ramona, and Jalaina for their emotional support, especially after the passing of our father. I would like to thank my supervisors Janne, Emile, and Geoff for their patience and guidance. I owe gratitude to Hakham Isaac Sassoon for his wisdom and mentorship. Thanks to the Gieskes Strijbis Fund and the Asser Institute for funding my research for four years. It would have not been possible without their financial support. Finally, and most importantly, I thank the All-Encompassing and Infinite One for endowing me with the gift of life, my passion for learning, and for my intelligence.

Selah