Preventing deadly conflict in divided societies in Asia: the role of local NGOs
Scheper, E.E.

Citation for published version (APA):
Scheper, E. E. (2005). Preventing deadly conflict in divided societies in Asia: the role of local NGOs

General rights
It is not permitted to download or to forward/distribute the text or part of it without the consent of the author(s) and/or copyright holder(s), other than for strictly personal, individual use, unless the work is under an open content license (like Creative Commons).

Disclaimer/Complaints regulations
If you believe that digital publication of certain material infringes any of your rights or (privacy) interests, please let the Library know, stating your reasons. In case of a legitimate complaint, the Library will make the material inaccessible and/or remove it from the website. Please Ask the Library: http://uba.uva.nl/en/contact, or a letter to: Library of the University of Amsterdam, Secretariat, Singel 425, 1012 WP Amsterdam, The Netherlands. You will be contacted as soon as possible.

UvA-DARE is a service provided by the library of the University of Amsterdam (http://dare.uva.nl)
Table of Contents

I. Introduction and Executive Summary

1.1 The origin of the study ................................................................. 1

   Deadly conflict in divided society and the threat to global security .......... 2
   Aftermath of 9/11 and the war on terror ......................................... 3
   Geopolitical influences on deadly conflict in Asia ............................ 5
   Militarization in Asia ..................................................................... 6

1.2 Local NGOs preventing deadly conflict: the four research propositions ... 8

1.3 Executive Summary ...................................................................... 11

II. Deadly conflict and Non Governmental Organisations: the analytical framework

2.1 Conflict, identity and inequality ..................................................... 15

   Conflict, identity and exclusion ...................................................... 16
   Conflict, inequality and social cohesion .......................................... 18
   Conflict, globalisation and human security ...................................... 19
   Conflict, gender equality and prevention ....................................... 20

2.2 Conflict prevention and local NGOs ............................................. 23

   Conflict prevention, peacebuilding and the costs of war ................. 23
   Conflict prevention, civil society and local NGOs ......................... 24

2.3 Research Methodology .................................................................. 27

III. Deadly conflict in four divided societies in Asia

3.1 Brief introduction of Cambodia, Sri Lanka, Indonesia and Myanmar .... 31

3.2 Asian Minorities at Risk: societies at the brink of deadly conflict .... 34

   Minorities at Risk project ............................................................... 34
   National and minority peoples at risk .............................................. 35
   Peace and Conflict Ledger ............................................................. 38

3.3 Conflict, cleavages and grievances in Cambodia ......................... 40

   Post colonial warfare and the regime of General Lon Nol ................ 40
   Khmer Rouge revolution and the Peoples Republic of Kampuchea .... 41
   Paris Peace Accords and the return of the Kingdom of Cambodia ...... 41
   Peace and conflict ledger and minorities at risk ............................ 42
   Historic, cultural and class cleavages ............................................. 43

3.4 Conflict, cleavages and grievance in Sri Lanka ............................ 45

   Post-colonial ethno-nationalist politics ......................................... 45
   Exclusion, inequality and creation of contemporary grievances ........ 46
   Civil war: 1983 – 2002 .................................................................. 47
   Ceasefire, peace negotiations and ethno-nationalist polarisation ....... 48
   Peace and conflict ledger and minorities at risk ............................ 49
   Historic, cultural and class cleavages ............................................. 49

3.5 Conflict, cleavages and grievances in Indonesia ............................ 51

   Post colonial independence struggle ............................................. 51
   Old and New Order Regime ......................................................... 52
   Transformasi ................................................................................. 53
Peace and conflict ledger and minorities at risk ........................................... 55
Historic, cultural and class cleavages ................................................................... 56
3.6 Conflict, cleavages and grievances in Myanmar ........................................... 58
Post colonial national peoples’ insurgency ......................................................... 58
Protracted ethnic conflict and militarization of Myanmar ............................... 59
Peace and conflict ledger and minorities at risk .................................................. 61
Historic, cultural and class cleavages ................................................................. 62
3.7 Comparative summary of cleavages and grievances ..................................... 63

IV. Social and economic causes and consequences of deadly conflict ............... 65
4.1 Breaking the Conflict Trap ........................................................................... 65
Lack of economic development as key cause of deadly conflict ...................... 65
Greed or Grievance: economic motives behind minorities’ quest for justice ....... 67
Deadly conflict risk factors examined and applied ............................................. 69
4.2 Preventing the Next Wave of Conflict ........................................................ 72
4.3 Social cohesion and the role of key actors in conflict prevention ................. 74

V. State - NGO relations in Asia........................................................................... 79
5.1 NGO generations, missions and governance ............................................... 79
5.2 History of local NGOs in Asia ...................................................................... 82
5.3 Freedom of Association, Assembly and Expression ..................................... 84
5.4 Right to development and role and responsibilities of State and NGOs ....... 87
5.5 Democratic deficit, global governance and soft power ................................. 89

VI. Local NGOs in Cambodia, Sri Lanka, Indonesia and Myanmar .................... 93
6.1 NGO sector at its tenth anniversary ............................................................... 93
6.2 NGO challenge to revive civil society after 20 years of civil war ............... 99
6.3 NGO renaissance in wake of three decades New Order regime ............... 104
6.4 Civil society void and NGOs in exile ........................................................... 109
6.5 Conclusions in regional perspective ............................................................. 114

VII. Role of local NGOs in preventing deadly conflict ....................................... 119
7.1 Causes of violent conflict according to local NGO analysis ....................... 119
7.2 Local NGO responses to prevent escalation of violent conflict .................. 124
7.3 Social cohesion building capacity of local NGOs ....................................... 130
7.4 Success indicators for NGO conflict resolution and prevention work ......... 138

VIII. Four thematic case studies of joint national NGO campaigns ................... 147
8.1 Good governance and democratisation ......................................................... 147
Commission for Free and Fair Elections in Cambodia ...................................... 147
People’s Action for Free and Fair Elections in Sri Lanka ................................. 150