Curriculum Vitae

Sanne Huijbregts, born in Heemstede on September 27th 1976, graduated from high school (Stedelijk Gymnasium Haarlem) in 1995. After studying Italian language and culture at the Università per Stranieri in Perugia (Italy, 1996), she studied educational sciences at the University of Amsterdam. During her studies she participated as a research assistant in various research projects at the department of educational sciences. Her master thesis focused on the interactions of toddlers and their caregivers in center-based child care. In 2002 she obtained her Masters degree in Educational Sciences.

In January 2003 she entered a PhD program at the University of Amsterdam. She conducted a research project on the childrearing beliefs of caregivers with diverse cultural backgrounds working with toddlers in center-based child care in the region of Amsterdam. Since August 2008 she is at the University of Amsterdam of Applied Sciences (Hogeschool van Amsterdam) as a researcher and teacher. She participates in a research group studying education in the metropolitan area, she holds responsibility for the departments' minor on 'Childcare: policy and management' (Minor kinderopvang: beleid en management), and she teaches various courses in educational sciences.
