

Acknowledgements

This study has taken considerable time and effort. I would like to extend my warmest thanks to Professor Dr. Roel Beetsma, University of Amsterdam, and to Professor Dr. Thorvaldur Gylfason, University of Iceland, for their support and academic guidance. Without their interest and help, this work would have been difficult to finalize. I would also like to extend my thanks to all those who have taken time to look at and discuss parts of this study during its drafting stages and for providing their opinions. I am also grateful to the various librarians, academics and bureaucrats for their assistance in obtaining books, documents and data. Academic research, if well directed, is helpful for society. To that end I also want to thank the University of Iceland Research Fund for their contribution. Last but not least, I would like to thank my family for their support.
